Ngos And Governance In The Arab World:

NGOs and Governance in the Arab World Sarah Ben Néfissa, Carlos Milani, 2005 Most non governmental organizations NGOs in the Arab world have traditionally been active in the areas of social work and charity often within a religious or communal framework. But recently many of these organizations have become the forum for conflicts between different political trends while others tackle political problems such as human rights or democratic issues. Facing the rejuvenated NGO scene in the Arab world public authorities remain torn between support for the concerns of civil society and the traditional mode of management which does not delegate, consult or decentralize. Can NGOs in the Arab world be considered full fledged actors of governance and of national and local development? Is the relationship between NGOs and public authorities at the national and local level one of partnership or opposition and competition? Are NGOs perceived to be palliatives to the shortcomings of the public authorities? How is the relationship between NGOs and society to be defined? Do Arab NGOs highlight the issues that remain undetected by the classical methods of action of the public authorities? The studies in this collection arising out of the Conference on NGOs and Governance in the Arab World held in Cairo in March 2000 attempt to answer these and other areas of concern. Contributors: Sylvia Chiffolleau, Dina Craissati, Guilain Denoeux, Mona Fawaz, Vivian Fouad, Sari Hanafi, Karam Karam, Samir Marcos, Nicola Pratt, Nadia Refat, Pierre Jean Roca, Muhamad Al Sayyid, Said Salma, Aown, Shawa Abd Al Ghaffar, Shukr.

Religion and Civil Society in the Arab World Tania Haddad, Elie Al Hindy, 2018-06-14 This book examines the links between civil society, religion and politics in the Middle East and North Africa region. The chapters in the volume explore the role of religion in shaping and changing the public sphere in regions that are developing and/or in conflict. They also discuss how these relations are reflected on civil society organizations and the role they are expected to play in transitional periods. This volume investigates the conceptual dilemmas regarding what is civil society in the Arab world today, examines the dynamic roles of civil society organizations and religion in the Middle East and North Africa, explores the future of the Arab civil society post Arab Spring events and how the latter continues to reshape the demand for democracy in the region. A comprehensive study of how the Arab civil society has come into being and its changing roles, this eclectic work will be of interest to scholars and researchers of politics, especially political Islam, international relations, Middle East Studies, African Studies, sociology and social anthropology.

Global Best Practices for CSO, NGO, and Other Nonprofit Boards BoardSource, 2018-05-01 An ideal resource for boards everywhere. There are at least 10 million Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) in the world, each of them with a board composed of individuals doing their best to govern well and wisely. There is no single model of governance to emulate, but are there universal principles and practices that can help boards everywhere perform at the highest level? This book takes us for a trip around the world to look at what is working for boards. Its discoveries will help not only boards but also nonprofit staff leaders seeking to assist their boards to optimal performance and capacity builders looking to strengthen their civil society sector. Even if your organizational concerns extend no further than city boundaries this book is for you One of the greatest governance challenges today is a lack of diversity on the board This can seriously hamper an organization s ability to realize mission and to understand and serve its community Reading this book will provide a greater understanding of how the cultural context affects governance and will sensitize the reader to different ways of thinking about governance Global Best Practices For CSO NGO and Other Nonprofit Boards presents case studies from different parts of the world that illustrate effective practice identifies and discusses interesting and significant differences and explores global governance trends with implications for us all Tests for universal truths about roles responsibilities and practices using criteria established by BoardSource the premier voice on nonprofit governance Provides information that builds exceptional nonprofit boards Discusses cultural differences in governance that will help all boards to better function in increasingly diverse environments Offers inspiration to NGO boards in any part of civil society Reflects on the future of governance worldwide If you re a capacity builder a board member or an executive leader looking for guidance on governance this is the book you ll want to have on hand NGOs, Governance and Development in the Arab World Sarah Ben Nefissa,2000

Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in Arabic

Abeer Abdulaziz AL-Sarrani,2016-03-25 This book explores the challenges of cross cultural translation of American literary works into Arabic which I argue have prevented many nineteenth century literary works from being translated into Arabic I have used the Arabic translations of Harriet Beecher Stowe s Uncle Tom s Cabin and an abridged English text accompanying one of the translations as a case study Since most of the Arabic translations of English and especially American literary works are merely linguistic oriented ones I reinforce the importance of adopting a period specific cultural oriented approach that maintains the cultural context of American literary works including the historical cultural religious geopolitical and gender based elements during the literary translation into the Arabic culture I start with discussing the internationalization of American works and the importance of a cultural reading of these works Reviewing many translations of English and American works in general I categorize the challenges of cross cultural literary translation from English into Arabic into the following cultural religious geopolitical and gender based ones While I am not calling for accurate cross cultural literary translations since it is impossible however I am advocating for faithful translations which maintain the literary text s cultural and historical contexts The accuracy of a literary translation depends on the amount of linguistic skill a translator has while the faithfulness of a literary translation is based upon the translator s sincere effort to include the literary text s entire cultural context including the historical cultural religious geopolitical and gender based elements Using Uncle Tom s Cabin as a case study I discuss how the previous challenges had negatively affected the translation process of the work Despite the fact the work has been translated seven times into Arabic due to the linguistic oriented approach the historical and cultural significance of Stowe s novel has not yet been introduced to Arab readers through translation Due to the current era of globalization that demands individuals to have multicultural knowledge and understanding and due to the recent cultural and translation projects of literary works from English into Arabic this book reinforces the importance and possibility of addressing the cultural religious geopolitical and gender based challenges while using Uncle Tom's Cabin as an example

Democracy and Authoritarianism in the Arab World Nicola Christine Pratt, 2007 Representing a departure from studies of Middle East politics and democratisation this book employs theories and concepts to the study of democracy and authoritarianism in the Arab world It examines the role of non state actors civil society in the maintenance of or resistance to the discourse that underpins authoritarian politics Index Islamicus, 2007

Gustavo Gozzi, Ruba Salih, 2008 Contentious Politics in the Middle East Holger Albrecht, 2010 A fine collection of empirically rich and thoughtful studies on a topic of considerable interest Its fine grained analyses of individual countries organizations and episodes of regime opposition interaction make an important contribution to our understanding of authoritarian rule in the Middle East and beyond David Waldner University of Virginia Clearly addresses a gap in the literature on Middle East politics by focusing on various oppositions within different countries of the region Deepens understanding of the concepts of opposition and contentious politics within authoritarian political systems Nicola Pratt University of Warwick Scholarship examining the governments in the Middle East and North Africa rarely focuses on opposition movements since those countries tend to be ruled by a centralized often authoritarian government However even in an oppressive state there are civil society and oppositional forces at work The contributors to Contentious Politics in the Middle East reveal how such forces emerge and are manifested in nondemocratic states across the region In most cases the essays offer a comparative perspective highlighting similarities across political borders Providing historical context for current events they examine the sociopolitical situations in Egypt Syria Jordan Kuwait Bahrain Iraq Morocco Tunisia Lebanon and Algeria and analyze the role of Islam in Arab states governments and in the opposition movements to them They also demonstrate that not all opposition forces propose the overthrow of authority and point out the various forms opposition takes in societies that leave little room for political activism The contributors to the volume are drawn from countries across three continents and bring backgrounds in political science conflict resolution and history Challenging the assertion that state society relations are limited to coercive top down arrangements in authoritarian regimes the book will inspire debate on the topic of contentious political participation within the region as well as in similar settings throughout the world
