Missile Envy Helen Caldicott,1986    Missile envy: the arms race & nuclear war Helen Caldicott,1981    Cold War Rhetoric Martin J. Medhurst,Robert L. Ivie,Philip Wander,Robert L. Scott,1997-11-30 Cold War Rhetoric is the first book in over twenty years to bring a sustained rhetorical critique to bear on central texts of the Cold War The rhetorical texts that are the subject of this book include speeches by Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy the Murrow McCarthy confrontation on CBS the speeches and writings of peace advocates and the recurring theme of unAmericanism as it has been expressed in various media throughout the Cold War years Each of the authors brings to his texts a particular approach to rhetorical criticism strategic metaphorical or ideological Each provides an introductory chapter on methodology that explains the assumptions and strengths of their particular approach    The American Dream Joseph L. Daleiden, Can each of us achieve our own American dream while recognizing needs of other individuals society and future generations Not if our present national policies continue warns long term planning expert Joseph L Daleiden He persuasively argues that if present socioeconomic trends remain our nation faces social disaster before the middle of the 21st century These trends can be reversed he insists but only if we are willing to 1 reject failed policies both liberal and conservative directed at population growth the environment the national debt trade poverty crime race relations education healthcare social security and tax reform 2 accept that all of these areas of concern are intertwined and 3 take responsibility for our decisions Avoiding ideology and platitudes Daleiden s pragmatic approach relies on actual evidence of how prospective policies will influence human behavior and whether their outcomes will increase or decrease human happiness in the long run Joseph L Daleiden Evanston IL is also the author of The Final Superstition A Critical Evaluation of the Judeo Christian Legacy and The Science of Morality The Individual Community and Future Generations    Visual Security Studies Juha Vuori,Rune Saugmann,2018-08-06 The present volume engages visuality in security from a variety of angles and explores what the subfield of Visual Security Studies might be To structure this experimentation and to encourage a more careful and multifaceted approach to visuality and security the main conceptual move in this volume is to envision three different transversal meeting points between security and visuality visuality as a modality active in representations and signs of security visuality as practice active in enacting security and visuality as a method active in investigating security These three approaches structure the book together with three areas in which we see visuality as especially pertinent in relation to security in security technologies that en vision security and are themselves the objects of visions of security in spectacles of security and security spectatorship and in ways of making security visible In this way the volume works to sensitize International Relations research to visual forms of knowledge and practice by examining visual aspects of security At the same time it allows for debate on how this particular modality of the sensible not only affects what is visible and what is not but also how authority and truth claims come about and how they are compared and evaluated Through engagement with security via the language or code of the visual it is possible to interrogate how scholars in the field understand visuality as well as the economy grammar and performativity of visual articulation and the production of knowledge The volume also examines how visuality can be used as a method in doing research and as a way of presenting research results Visual Security Studies is not a new theory of security or its study instead the present volume suggests that visuality should be envisioned as an aspect of security studies that can be incorporated into pre existing approaches The aim is to highlight how much of contemporary practice is visual and to foster an increased attentiveness to visuality in security politics security practice and to the possibilities of employing visual research methods in security scholarship This book will be of much interest to students of critical security media studies surveillance studies visual sociology and IR in general The Rhetoric of Antinuclear Fiction Patrick Mannix, 1992 Given the ever present threat of world wide calamity that nuclear weapons present it is not surprising that they have fascinated fiction writers and filmmakers ever since their development Nor is it surprising that many of these artists would seek to use their work to influence mass opinion about these weapons What may be surprising is that few studies have been made of how antinuclear fiction actually attempts to persuade its audiences The Rhetoric of Antinuclear Fiction is an effort to do so Organized around the three traditional modes of rhetorical appeal the ethical the rational and the emotional the book describes and classifies the persuasive strategies of a wide range of antinuclear fiction from the period 1945 to 1989 Works examined include On the Beach Fail Safe A Canticle for Leibowitz Dr Strangelove The Day After War Day Testament Threads and Riddley Walker During the course of these studies Patrick Mannix reveals what sorts of fictional characters have been most widely used to deliver antinuclear messages and he follows the major arguments of the nuclear debate as they have been reflected in fiction He also shows which emotions are invoked most often to secure the audience s opposition to nuclear weapons and how those emotions have been generated by the creators of antinuclear fiction The range of characters that this volume examines includes the pacifistic but loyal Air Force general of Fail Safe the pious but shrewd monks of A Canticle for Leibowitz the suburban housewife of Threads and even the computer of War games which teaches humanity the folly of nuclear war We also follow fictional manifestations of the nuclear debate from veiled arguments for world government in The Day the Earth Stood Still through warnings of the dangers of Mutual Assured Destruction depicted by Fail Safe Dr Strangelove and Wargames to attacks on the concepts of limited nuclear war and the Strategic Defense Initiative in War Day This study also demonstrates the dynamic of fear in works as diverse as Ape and Essence The Day After and Them and dissects the powerful use of scorn in Dr Strangelove It also shows us the paradoxical role of hope in securing the effectiveness of antinuclear fiction While maintaining his focus on the persuasive nature of this literature Mannix does consider the aesthetic value of the fiction he studies noting that the relationship between the two elements is complex and often problematical While admitting that the aesthetic elements of some works would limit their audience and therefore reduce the scope of their rhetorical effect he demonstrates how the skillful combination of artistic and rhetorical elements raises a film like Dr Strangelove above the similarly themed Fail Safe as both a persuasive act and an aesthetic artifact BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Understanding Popular Culture and World Politics in the Digital Age Laura J.

Wilson,2017-02-20

Author Gary L Wilson has studied the Bible extensively for many years with the goal of saving the American people and the people in Europe who will be caught in the famine of the Antichrist In World War III Nuclear War he provides Biblical evidence of how to prevent nine possible nuclear wars between the Pentagon and the Antichrist who will use the nuclear arsenals of Russia the former Soviet nations and Europe to threaten the world during World War III Wilson offers an extensive discussion of the political social and spiritual implications of the coming warfare and what changes have already happened in Europe to make it possible for the Antichrist to start World War III in AD 2030 He tells the public how to prepare for the coming end times so they can be strong in their faith and look forward to peace with God He also explains how to decipher the prophetic words and symbols found in the book of Revelation Filled with ample scriptural evidence World War III Nuclear War outlines the instructions of Christ and the Lord God to avoid the impending nuclear wars Wilson predicts a nuclear attack on Rome in 2030 as told in Revelation 18 4 and 18 19 He also predicts a major nuclear war and nuclear winter as told in Revelation 8 12 The Nuclear Freeze Campaign J. Michael Hogan,1994 In the first in depth critical analysis of the nuclear freeze campaign J Michael Hogan examines the rhetorical strategies of freeze activists in political speeches mass market paperbacks direct mail documentaries and even public school curricula Through a series of case studies Hogan examines the reasons for the campaign's success as a media phenomenon while also accounting for its failure as a policy initiative. The rhetorical strategies of the freeze campaign Hogan argues attracted sympathetic news coverage especially on television news but those very strategies doomed the campaign to failure in institutional political contexts and produced only superficial and transitory public support. The Nuclear Freeze Campaign explores what public debate and deliberation can and cannot accomplish in the telepolitical age. In focusing upon the freeze campaign Hogan offers a new more critical interpretation of a political cause often praised for empowering the public in the nuclear debate. He also explains why such an apparently powerful political movement had so little impact on electoral politics and strategic arms policies. Above all however Hogan warns of larger threats to American democracy threats posed by dangerous trends in the ways Americans identify discuss debate and resolve important public issues. These are the threats posed by the politics of imagery and emotionalism of sloganeering and sound bites that suggest to Americans that politics is a spectator sport.
