Missing Persons Stephanie Carpenter, 2017-10-10 Winner of the 2017 Press 53 Award for Short Fiction Missing Persons is the debut story collection by Stephanie Carpenter of Upper Peninsula Michigan Jim Shepard says These stories are piercingly smart and heartening in their faith in our responsibility to always make sure that we've nevertheless done what we could

In A Twisted Mind A Collection of Short Stories Larry R. Liberty, 2015-05-05 A farm family in northern New Jersey is constantly shaken by a new airport Supernatural activity noise and fear forces the family to relocate their farm to rural Northeastern Pennsylvania An ironic and twisted ending People in northern Montana are disappearing especially when those lights appear in the Big Sky An investigative reporter discovers it's happening in every state He then discovers a government conspiracy and a secret ancient society The rest is yummy but not for him An archeologist in Tibet discovers a new species of terrestrial worm averaging 20 feet in length and 2 feet in diameter He collects some eggs and returns to his home on the Palisades in Alpine New Jersey He buries the eggs along the Palisades and is soon overrun with these giant worms so he harvests them for a fishermen's bait and becomes very wealthy with a chain of bait stores Later his worms are found to be very intelligent and have an agenda In a humorous twist the worm meat is found to cure insanity and Washington D C has an epiphany What's with the cartons of Pall Mall cigarettes piled high The children in ancient Egypt are stricken with a flu like virus The following generations of boys started wearing skirts and have no interest in girls Soon the great dynasty went into decline as the population decreased Other empires suffered the same fate until modern science explained the reason and embraced the virus for population control A humorous and outrageous take on homosexuality A glitch in software at a dictionary publisher turns out a prototype copy with half the words given the wrong definitions The one defective copy is accidentally placed in a child's backpack While on vacation in the South Pacific the editor and his young sons are marooned on an uncharted island when their high speed boat crashes into a rocky beach The editor suffers a head injury and his young sons must fend for themselves The only source of education is the defective dictionary in the child's backpack They are rescued after 10 years and return to the United States the boys are teens and dad lost most of his marbles They become wards of their uncle and when they enter society their scrambled words make for a hilarious chain of events Unending with a twist

Missing persons, political landscapes and cultural practices Laura Huttunen, 2025-02-11 This book examines human disappearances anthropologically in various contexts ranging from enforced disappearances under oppressive governments and during armed conflicts to disappearing undocumented migrants and finally to people who go missing under more everyday circumstances Two focuses run through the book the relationship between the state and disappearances and the consequences of disappearances for the families and communities of missing persons The book analyses both the circumstances that make some people disappear and the variety of responses that disappearances give rise to the latter include projects focused on searching for the missing and identifying human remains as well as political projects that call for accountability for disappearances While providing empirical examples from a variety of places with Bosnia Herzegovina as they key empirical site the book develops an analytic grip on the slippery category of the disappeared Missing from Their Homes Herbert Ernest Bates,1936 Index to Short Stories ,1929 Index to Short Stories Ina Ten Eyck Firkins,1923
