Mistero Buffo Dario Fo, 1988 A distillation of the popular and comic elements of medieval mystery plays forged into a political and cultural weapon for the radical politics of today Radical People's Theatre Eugène Van Erven, 1988 book now extensively rewritten and updated remains the only full length critical study to cover various phases of Dario Fo's theatrical career. It looks at Fo's political influences and also the influence on his work of various theatrical motifs including the great clown traditions which stretch back to the middle ages. The political work of Dario Fo and his wife collaborator Franca Rame is charted from the 1960s up to the present to give the reader clear insight into this playwright performer's unique literary and theatrical strengths. Each of Fo's plays and productions is discussed at length and the author has included an extensive and updated bibliography which includes full production details, quotes and writings about Fo. Always a popular performer in his native Italy, Fo has been one of the world's most performed dramatists. In the author's words, he is the people's court jester.

The Collected Plays of Dario Fo: Mistero Buffo Dario Fo, 2001 Comic Medievalism Louise D'Arcens, 2014. The role of laughter and humour in the postmedieval citation, interpretation or recreation of the middle ages has hitherto received little attention, a gap in scholarship which this book aims to fill. Examining a wide range of comic texts and practices across several centuries from Don Quixote and early Chaucerian modernisation through to Victorian theatre, the Monty Python films, television and the experience of visiting sites of heritage tourism such as the Jorvik Viking Museum at York, it identifies what has been perceived as uniquely funny about the Middle Ages in different times and places and how this has influenced ideas not just about the medieval but also about modernity. Tracing the development and permutations of its various registers including satire, parody, irony, camp, wit, jokes and farce, the author offers fresh and amusing insight into comic medievalism as a vehicle for critical commentary on the present as well as the past and shows that for as long as there has been medievalism, people have laughed at and with the middle ages. Louise D'Arcens is Associate Professor in English Literatures at the University of Wollongong.
