Department popularly known as Z Special Unit in the final months of WWII Anthropologist Christine Helliwell has called on her years of first hand knowledge of Borneo interviewed more than one hundred Dayak people and all the remaining Semut operatives and consulted thousands of military and other documents to piece together this astonishing story Focusing on the operation s activities along two of Borneo s great rivers the Baram and Rejang the book provides a detailed military history of Semut II s and Semut III s brutal guerrilla campaign against the Japanese and reveals the decisive but long overlooked Dayak role in the operation But this is no ordinary history Helliwell captures vividly the sounds smells and tastes of the jungles into which the operatives are plunged an environment so terrifying that many are unsure whether jungle or Japanese is the greater enemy And she takes us into the lives and cavernous longhouses of the Dayaks on whom their survival depends The result is a truly unique account of the encounter between two very different cultures amidst the savagery of the Pacific War
