Striptease Rachel Shteir, 2004 This first complete history of a century of striptease is filled with rare photographs and period illustrations

The Hidden Handshake Aleš Debeljak, 2004-09-27 The Hidden Handshake uses four distinct yet intertwined essays to address the questions surrounding our notions of citizenship national identity and cosmopolitan belonging The violent disintegration of Yugoslavia and the undercurrent of EU enlargement stand out as two contrasting movements that highlight the importance of having a national identification while also defying it to avoid both the rigidity of nationalist exclusivism and the blithe nonsense of global citizenship Through the exploration of sociohistorical material and artistic visions as well as the author s layered identity as a Slovene a Yugoslav a Central European and a European Ale_ Debeljak tries to show that it is possible to remain faithful to geography history and community even as one fosters links to global cultural movements Not surprisingly the book itself shares some of this hybrid identity It uses not only theoretical concepts and empirical data but also historical sketches on art national life and society along with poetic autobiographical reminiscences and personal anecdotes Ultimately the book calls for an adoption of liberal nationalism which is commensurate with democratic order and for a more ecumenical understanding of artistic visions that does not discriminate on the grounds of one s place of origin

Political Alchemy:
Technology Unbounded Agnes Horvath, 2021-03-21 This book explores politics as a form of alchemy understood as the transformation of entities through an alteration of their identities Identifying this process as a common denominator of many political phenomena such as EU integration mediatisation communism or globalisation the author demonstrates not only the widespread presence of alchemical techniques in politics but also the acceleration of their deployment A study of the steady growth of power as it reaches a continuous and permanent stage thus avoiding the inherent difficulties connected with birth and death of political organisations and institutions this volume reveals political alchemy to be a form of self sustaining growth through sterile multiplication devoid of meaning Revealing both the integrative and disintegrative nature of a political process that while appearing to work in the interests of all in fact produces apathy desperate mobilisation and despair by crushing concrete entities such as personality and tradition Political Alchemy Technology Unbounded will appeal to scholars of sociology and anthropology with interests in social theory and political thought Northern Lights Drago Jančar, 2001 Josef Erdman arrives in Maribor Slovenia on the eve of World War II Though claiming to be a salesman it soon becomes apparent that Josef has no purpose in the town and that a newcomer can expect nothing but distrust from the townspeople Maribor is full of tensions that are played out in pub brawls and in the rivalry between the Slovenes and Germans at the top of the social hierarchy Against this backdrop of ethnic hatred and personal descent Josef witnesses the fiery shimmer of the aurora borealis and imagines the town has been set aflame an omen of the coming of war A Man and His Money Frederic Stewart Isham, 1912 Marriage, Duty & Desire in Victorian Poetry and Drama Richard D.
