The Making of Asian America Erika Lee, 2015-09 In the past fifty years Asian Americans have helped change the face of America and are now the fastest growing group in the United States But as historian Erika Lee reminds us Asian Americans also have deep roots in the country The Making of Asian America tells the little known history of Asian Americans and their role in American life from the arrival of the first Asians in the Americas to the present day An epic history of global journeys and new beginnings this book shows how generations of Asian immigrants and their American born descendants have made and remade Asian American life in the United States sailors who came on the first trans Pacific ships in the 1500s to the Japanese Americans incarcerated during World War II Over the past fifty years a new Asian America has emerged out of community activism and the arrival of new immigrants and refugees No longer a despised minority Asian Americans are now held up as America's model minorities in ways that reveal the complicated role that race still plays in the United States Published to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the passage of the United States Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 that has remade our nation of immigrants this is a new and definitive history of Asian Americans But more than that it is a new way of understanding America itself its complicated histories of race and immigration and its place in the world today Jacket

Ornamentalism Anne Anlin Cheng, 2019 Ornamentalism offers one of the first sustained and original theories of Asiatic femininity Examining ornamentality in lieu of Orientalism as a way to understand the representation circulation and ontology of Asiatic femininity this study extends our vocabulary about the woman of color beyond the usual platitudes about objectification

Borderland Films Dominique Brégent-Heald, 2015-11 The concept of North American borderlands in the cultural imagination fluctuated greatly during the Progressive Era as it was affected by similarly changing concepts of identity and geopolitical issues influenced by the Mexican Revolution and the First World War Such shifts became especially evident in films set along the Mexican and Canadian borders as filmmakers explored how these changes simultaneously represented and influenced views of society at large Borderland Films examines the intersection of North American borderlands and culture as portrayed through early twentieth century cinema Drawing on hundreds of films Dominique Brégent Heald investigates the significance of national borders the ever changing concepts of race gender and enforced boundaries the racialized ideas of criminality that painted the borderlands as unsafe and in need of control and the wars that showed how international conflict significantly influenced the United States relations with its immediate neighbors Borderland Films provides a fresh perspective on American cinematic cultural and political history and on how cinema contributed to the establishment of societal narratives in the early twentieth century

Activist New York Steven H.

Jaffe,2018-05 Activist New York surveys New York City's long history of social activism from the 1650s to the 2010s. Bringing these passionate histories alive, Activist New York is a visual exploration of these movements serving as a companion book to the highly praised Museum of the City of New York exhibition of the same name. New York's primacy as a metropolis of commerce, finance, industry, media, and ethnic diversity has given it a unique and powerfully influential role in the history of American and global activism. Steven H. Jaffe explores how New York's evolving identities as an incubator and battleground for activists have made it a machine for change. In responding to the city as a site of slavery, immigrant entry, labor conflicts, and wealth disparity, New Yorkers have repeatedly challenged the status quo. Activist New York brings to life the characters who make up these vibrant histories, including David Ruggles, an African American shopkeeper who helped enslaved fugitives on the city's Underground Railroad during the 1830s; Clara Lemlich, a Ukrainian Jewish immigrant who helped spark the 1909 Uprising of 20,000 that forever changed labor relations in the city's booming garment industry; and Craig Rodwell, Karla Jay, and others who forged a Gay Liberation movement both before and after the Stonewall Riot of June 1969. Permanent exhibition, Puffin Foundation Gallery, Museum of the City of New York, USA.

The Shape of Power Karen Lemmey, Tobias Wofford, Grace Yasumura, 2024-11-12

A major new survey of American sculpture exploring how it both reflects and redefines concepts of race and identity in the United States. How does American sculpture intersect with the history of race in the United States? The three-dimensional qualities of sculpture give it a distinct advantage over other art forms in capturing a subject's likeness, and our minds can swiftly conjure a body and racialize it from the most minimal of prompts. The Shape of Power examines the role of American sculpture from the nineteenth century to today in understanding and constructing the concept of race in the United States and how this medium has shaped the way generations have learned to visualize and think about race. Exploring the relationship between sculpture and ideas about race in the United States, this book provides fresh perspectives on artists ranging from Hiram Powers, Edmonia Lewis, and Augusta Savage to Barbara Chase-Riboud, Titus Kaphar, Raven, Halfmoon, Sanford Biggers, Betye Saar, Yolanda L. Pérez, and Simone Leigh. It reveals how sculptors use this versatile medium to challenge discriminatory ideologies and entrenched social and cultural constructions of race while offering bold new visions of community identity and selfhood. Featuring superb illustrations of sculptural works in a broad range of media, The Shape of Power contributes new scholarship to the understudied field of American sculpture, which hasn't been the subject of a major publication survey in more than fifty years. Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum, Washington, DC.

Exhibition Schedule: Smithsonian American Art Museum, Washington, DC, November 8, 2024–September 14, 2025.
