tell the how when and why of the names of these forty six about which but very little has ever before been known Incidentally trail history records of first ascents and tales of many men and women of outstanding prominence in the history of Adirondack mountaineering are woven in the story The sketches have evolved from a set of shorter ones written for the Rotary Club of Glens Falls New York in 1922 and 1923 Alfred L Donaldson planned to include them as a supplement in a third volume of his A History of the Adirondacks which he contemplated writing The new volume did not get beyond the planning stage for Mr Donaldson passed away before it was begun During the three years following his death much new material was gathered and the original sketches were revised and enlarged When finished they were given to the Adirondack Mountain Club with the hope that publication of a history of the peaks a work never before undertaken would add to the pleasure and interest of climbing in the higher Adirondacks As the sketches are primarily concerned with nomenclature their order in the book is in the sequence of the naming of the peaks Therefore the number at the beginning of each sketch indicates numerically the order in which the peak was named

The High Peaks of the Adirondacks Robert Marshall,2025-06-24 From Introduction 1922 This is the first of a series of publications to be issued from time to time by the Adirondack Mountain Club for distribution to its members and for general sale as facts and features are discovered or collected relating to the Adirondacks and deemed worthy of permanent record in this manner In the present case it is believed that the Club is publishing in accordance with its policy and its aims and purposes a manuscript which is of decided interest and value The achievement of the author of this article and his companions in climbing forty two of the high peaks of the Adirondacks is stimulating to the cause of mountaineering in northern New York Furthermore the piece will occupy a unique place in the bibliography of our New York State mountains for undoubtedly the Marshall brothers and their guide are the only persons who have stood on the tops of all of the mountains described The author is a charter member of the Adirondack Mountain Club and he is turning his manuscript over to the Club as a contribution to the work of the organization In granting permission for its publication Mr Marshall asked that it be made clear that he wrote only as the scribe and is speaking as much for Herb Clark the guide and George Marshall his brother as for himself A word as to the interesting rating of the mountains which Mr Marshall has included in his article This of course is not to be taken as a standard set up by the Club It is by its very nature a matter of personal opinion and in some cases it is quite conceivable that there would be a very decided difference of general opinion Introduction However there can be no denying that such a rating is interesting and furthermore every effort was made to make it as fair as possible a secret ballot in writing was taken from each of the three in the party from which a composite rating was reached
