Writing in Collaborative Theatre-Making Sarah Sigal, 2017-09-16 This engaging text explores the role of the writer and the text in collaborative practice through the work of contemporary writers and companies working in Britain offering students and aspiring writers and directors effective practical strategies for collaborative work

Writing in Online Courses Phoebe Jackson, Christopher Weaver, 2018-06-25 For scholars interested in the intersection of writing and online instruction

Writing in Online Courses How the Online Environment Shapes Writing and Practice examines both the theoretical and practical implications of writing in online courses The essays in this collection reflect upon what the authors have learned about the synergistic way that writing helps to shape online instruction and how online instruction helps to shape the writing process While many educators continue to question the reasons for teaching online these essays demonstrate the useful ways in which it enhances and informs student writing and learning From the vantage point of different disciplines the authors examine how the writing process is revealed and changed when it is placed at the center of an online learning environment These scholars and practitioners attest to the multiple ways that teaching online has enabled them to rethink how writing functions in their classes allowing them to pursue educational goals and student outcomes that may have been more difficult or even impossible to pursue in the traditional classroom
