changed the face of much of the planet Newfoundland was part of this widespread transformation as migratory cod fishermen settled here in the early 1800s in order to hunt seals in late winter and early spring The seal fishery brought prosperity and growth and shaped this new society but seal hunters and their families paid a heavy human cost in lives lost and suffering experienced The traditional oil industries were doomed with the discovery of mineral oils and the ha essing of electricity and Newfoundland along with other societies faced painful adjustments while searching for alte ative industries However while its place in the economy declined the seal fishery left an indelible imprint on Newfoundland s culture and
