Converse with One Earthly Jeannie Chen, Cheng Hsiu Chen, 2017-08-30 A book differs from a person in that one is dead and another alive The need to be consistent with oneself is one of the five merits discussed in chapter 7 A person needs to attempt on achieving consistency on all fronts but a book does not need to The inconsistency within this book demonstrates the consistency of authors to reveal all truth including our stages of spiritual growth An outline of this book is provided after the last chapter Textbooks in schools and colleges should have similar outlines appended to help the study The writing of outlines has not received enough attention in school that most students still write one paragraph before outlining Writing paragraphs sequentially should only occur when one does not have a clear sight of what to write and have only vague and general ideas Outlining should be done at least 95 percent of the time The Preacher's Complete Homiletical Commentary on the Old Testament: Chronicles, 1892

Praying for Strangers River Jordan, 2011-04-05 What if there was something readers could do that could positively influence others and change their lives in the process As 2009 approached New Year's resolutions were the last thing on River Jordan's mind Her sons were both about to go off to war and all she could do was pray for their safety and hope to maintain her strength until she unexpectedly came upon the perfect New Year's resolution one that focused on others instead of herself She would pray for a complete stranger every single day for a year In Praying for Strangers River Jordan tells of her amazing personal journey of uncovering the needs of the human heart as she prayed her way through the year for people she had never met before The discovery that Jordan made along the journey was not simply that her prayers touched the lives of these strangers but that the unexpected connections she made with other people would be a profound experience that would change her life forever Watch a Video
