in the literature devoured in the basement the forbidden volumes of Heine Mann and Rilke Then Herman appears awakening desire of the deepest sort Impelled by adolescent memories the narrator saves him a Polish Jew from the Germans Hidden with the other secret buried passions in the basement Herman also shares them unexpectedly devouring the literature of love And so develops an extraordinary and shattering affair within which two bodies and two antagonistic languages Yiddish and German are magnetically attracted Sparingly told compelling and both morally precise and uncertain Gilles Rozier's novel invites comparison with Bernhard Schlink's The Reader An achingly beautiful exercise in emotional intelligence it sees its protagonists wrestle with collective guilt individual motivation and the power of words words that are written spoken and left unsaid
