Love and Marriage in Globalizing China Wang Pan, 2014-11-13 As China globalizes the number of marriages between Chinese people and foreigners is increasing These Chinese foreign marriages have profound implications for China's cultural identity This book based on extensive original research outlines the different types of Chinese foreign marriage and divorce and the changing scale and changing patterns of such marriages and divorces and examines how such marriages and divorces are portrayed in different kinds of media It shows how those types of Chinese foreign marriage where Chinese patriotism and Chinese values are preserved are depicted favourably whereas other kinds of Chinese foreign marriage especially those where Chinese women marry foreign nationals are disapproved of male foreign nationals being seen as having a propensity to infidelity deception violence and taking advantage of Chinese women The book contrasts the portrayal of Chinese foreign marriage with the reality and with the depiction of Chinese Chinese marriage where many of the same problems apply Overall the book sheds much light on changing social processes and on current imaginings of China's place in the world

Love and Romance in China Pan Wang, 2025-09-04 Love and Romance in China examines love affection and emotions in China from Maoist to contemporary China focusing on the intersections with politics economics gender class race and technology From the founding of the People's Republic of China to the end of the Cultural Revolution political ideology and class struggle dominated everyday life and love was subordinated to the communist revolution and socialism During the Cultural Revolution this turbulent period witnessed the paradoxical existence of self abstinence and self indulgence Since China changed its political ideology in 1979 and shifted to a market oriented economy the country embraced the idea of romantic love This emotional turn fostered opportunities for diverse intimate relationships characterized by the growth of cross cultural love LGBTQI love and the emergence of a sexual revolution Zhang 2011 Jeffreys and Yu 2015 The new dynamic was linked to contested discourses of fantasised eroticized and racialized foreign love intertwined with nationalist sentiments and ongoing tensions between sexual minorities and the government The new millennium has witnessed love crises characterised by growing concerns about leftover men and women high divorce rates declining marriage and birth rates and other relationship problems The deepening of the market economy and technological advances have turned love into a fast food commodity for mass consumption manifested in dating shows digital platforms and intimacy between humans and AI dolls Wang draws on a wide range of texts including government statistics on marriages and divorces legal documents Maoist folk songs poems posters love letters media texts popular discourses online dating websites and ethnographic observations and interviews

Hong Kong, China Gordon Mathews, Dale Lü, Jiewei Ma, 2008 The idea of national identity is an ambiguous one for Hong Kong Returned to the national embrace of China on 1 July 1997 after 150 years as a British colony the concept of national identity and what it means to belong to a nation is a matter of great tension and contestation in Hong Kong Written by three academic specialists on Hong Kong cultural identity social history and mass media this book explores the processes through which the people of Hong Kong are learning to belong to a nation by examining their relationship with the Chinese nation and state in the recent past present and future It considers the complex meanings of and debates over national identity in Hong Kong over the past fifty years and especially during the last decade following Hong Kong's return to China It also places these arguments within a larger global perspective to ask what Hong Kong can teach us about national identity and its potential transformations Multidisciplinary in its approach Hong Kong and China explores national identity in terms of theory mass media survey data ethnography and history and will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese history cultural studies and nationalism (The Loves of Cleitophon and Leucippe) Achilles
