Lucy And The Firestone:

Lucy and the Firestone June Crebbin, 2004 A new title in the highly acclaimed series for beginner readers written using a variety of media and ideal for use in compliance with the literacy strategy The American Shropshire Sheep Record Mortimer Levering, 1892 Includes constitution rules and breeders of the Association The American Aberdeen-Angus Herd-book American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association, 1911 American Aberdeen-Angus Herd Book American Angus Association, 1911 History of U.S. Television Lawrence H. Rogers, 2000-07 The Reades of Blackwood Hill, in the Parish of Horton, Staffordshire Aleyn Lyell Reade, 1906 Music Radio Jim Cox, 2024-10-17 Long before the invention of talk radio music was the heart and soul of radio programming whether standing alone filling in the time between features or identifying to widespread audiences the shows coming on and signing off the air Jim Cox's Music Radio encompasses the entire range of musical programming from the early 1920s to the early 1960s Jazz country classical gospel pop big band western and semi classical forms are covered as are the vocalists instrumentalists and disc jockeys who made them available to listeners Virtually all the major series and artists are explored in depth and lesser known shows and performers are touched on as well Some of the series included are The Bing Crosby Show The Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street The Fred Waring Show Grand Ole Opry The Bell Telephone Hour The Cities Service Concerts Your Hit Parade The Kate Smith Show The Railroad Hour and The Voice of Firestone Changing Channels Kay Mills, 2010-05-05 In the years before the civil rights era American broadcasting reflected the interests of the white mainstream especially in the South Today the face of local television throughout the nation mirrors the diversity of the local populations The impetus for change began in 1964 when the Office of Communication of the United Church of Christ and two black Mississippians Aaron Henry and Reverend R L T Smith challenged the broadcasting license of WLBT an NBC affiliate in Jackson Mississippi The lawsuit was the catalyst that would bring social reform to American broadcasting This station in a city whose population was 40 percent black was charged with failure to give fair coverage to civil rights and to integration issues that were dominating the news Among offenses cited by the black population were the cancellation of a network interview with the civil rights attorney Thurgood Marshall and editorializing against the integration of the University of Mississippi However muscle money and a powerhouse Washington D C law firm were on the side of the station Despite the charges the Federal Communications Commission twice renewed the station's license Twice the challengers won appeals to the federal courts Warren Burger then a federal appeals court judge wrote decisions on both challenges The first ordered the FCC to allow public participation in its proceedings The second an unprecedented move took the license from WLBT This well told deeply researched history of the case covers the legal battles over their more than fifteen years and reports the ultimate victory for civil rights Aaron Henry a black civil rights leader and one of the plaintiffs became the station's chairman of the board WLBT's new manager William Dilday was the first black person in the South to hold such a position Burger's decision on this Mississippi case had widescale repercussions for it allowed community groups in other regions to challenge their stations and to negotiate for improved services and for the employment of minorities

The Film Anthologies Index Stephen E. Bowles, 1994-10 The Film Anthologies Index is a bibliographical resource essential to any person or institution interested in the study of film No publication or database currently indexes the contents of these important anthologies There are over 600 anthologies by both multiple and single authors in English that have been published through 1991 These anthologies contain over 10 000 stand alone pieces that 1 reprint articles from their original source 2 select excerpts from book length publications and 3 include original essays appearing only in a specialized anthology Without The Film Anthologies Index the researcher would have no guide to the valuable contents between the covers of these anthologies Much more than just a guide to the contents of anthologies the main section consists of 6 563 numbered entries that alphabetically list by author the contents of each piece found in the anthologies You could find for example all pieces written by a particular author which have appeared in the anthologies Additionally every author entry refers the user to all the anthologized sources which contain each specific piece For example Robert Warshaw's landmark essay on Movie Chronicle The Westerner can be found in 9 different anthologies or that selected essays by Sergei Einstein appear in over 50 separate anthologies Without The Film Anthologies Index there would be no way to systematically locate these buried treasures The final section of The Film Anthologies Index consists of an extensive listing of all film titles individual names specific genres countries periods studios etc as well as all key words and phrases that appear in the titles of the included pieces There are approximately 7000 topics covered in this section The user friendly layout of this reference source makes it both a comprehensive resource for everyone from the casual movie goer who wants a deeper understanding of the medium to the dedicated film scholar who is pursuing material on
