Ludwig Redl:

Journeys Into Madness Gemma Blackshaw, Sabine Wieber, 2012-06-01 At the turn of the century Sigmund Freud's investigation of the mind represented a particular journey into mental illness but it was not the only exploration of this territory in the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Sanatoriums were the new tourism destinations; psychiatrists were collecting art works produced by patients and writers were developing innovative literary techniques to convey a character's interior life. This collection of essays uses the framework of journeys in order to highlight the diverse artistic, cultural, and medical responses to a peculiarly Viennese anxiety about the madness of modern times. The travellers of these journeys vary from patients to doctors, artists to writers, architects to composers and royalty to tourists, in engaging with their histories the contributors reveal the different ways in which madness was experienced and represented in Vienna. 1900
