Luftkreis Und Literatur:

W.G. Sebald and the Writing of History Anne Fuchs, Jonathan James Long, 2007 Summary W G Sebald frequently mentioned in the same breath as Franz Kafka and Vladimir Nabokov is one of the most important European writers of recent decades He has been lauded by such major cultural commentators as Susan Sontag and Paul Auster and he has combined wide public appeal with universal critical acclaim His work is concerned with questions of memory exile representation and above all else history But his approach to history is strikingly different from conventional historiographical writing on the one hand and from the historical novel on the other His texts are hybrid in nature mixing fiction biography historiography travel writing and memoir and incorporating numerous photographic images This volume seeks to respond to the complexities of Sebald s image of history by presenting essays by a team of international scholars all of whom are acknowledged Sebald experts It offers a unique and exciting perspective on the dazzling work of one of the major literary figures of our times
