BOOK JACKET From Museum Critique to the Critical Museum Katarzyna

Murawska-Muthesius,Piotr Piotrowski,2016-03-03 Since the late nineteenth century museums have been cited as tools of imperialism and colonialism as strongholds of patriarchy masculinism homophobia and xenophobia and accused both of elitism and commercialism But could the museum absorb and benefit from its critique turning into a critical museum into the site of resistance rather than ritual This book looks at the ways in which the museum could use its collections its cultural authority its auratic space and resources to give voice to the underprivileged and to take an active part in contemporary and at times controversial issues Drawing together both major museum professionals and academics it examines the theoretical concept of the critical museum and uses case studies of engaged art institutions from different parts of the world It reaches beyond the usual focus on western Europe America and the World including voices from as well as about eastern European museums which have rarely been discussed in museum studies books so far

The Craft of Church Planting Christian Selvaratnam,2022-06-30 Drawing on insights from the training practices of the English medieval craft guilds a global survey of 500 church planters interviews with artists and church planting trainers and the authors 30 years of ministry experience The Craft of Church Planting offers a distinctive and imaginative perspective on the methods used to train future practitioners in the art of church planting Demonstrating how training for the next generation of church planting leaders might be informed by the historic master apprentice model guild learning communities creativity and an artisan approach to ministry this book is a vital resource to inform the methods of training for the next generation of church planters

Curating Art Janet Marstine,Oscar Ho Hing Kay,2021-12-30 Curating Art provides insight into some of the most socially and politically impactful curating of historical and contemporary art since the late 1990s It offers up a museological framework for understanding watershed developments of curating in art museums Representing the plurality of theory and practice around the expanded field of relational curating the book focuses on curating that prioritises the quality of relationships between people and objects between institutions and people and among people It has wide international breadth with particularly strong representation in East and Southeast Asia including four papers never before translated into English This Asian cluster illuminates the globalisation of the field and challenges dichotomies of East and West while acknowledging distinctions within specific but often transnational cultural spheres The compelling philosophical perspectives and case studies included within Curating Art will be of interest to students and researchers studying curating exhibition
