Material Culture Of Kenya:

Material Culture of Kenya Sultan Somjee,1993 African Material Culture Mary Jo Arnoldi,Kris L. Hardin,1996-04-22
This volume has much to recommend it providing fascinating and stimulating insights into many arenas of material culture many of which still remain only superficially explored in the archaeological literature Archaeological Review a vivid introduction to the topic A glimpse into the unique and changing identities in an ever changing world Come All Ye Fourteen interdisciplinary essays open new perspectives for understanding African societies and cultures through the contextualized study of objects treating everything from the production of material objects to the meaning of sticks masquerades household tools clothing and the television set in the contemporary repertoire of African material culture The Luo Culture Andrew B. C. Ocholla-Ayayo,1980 A Material Culture Stephanie Wynne-Jones,2016 A Material Culture focuses on objects in Swahili society through the elaboration of an approach that sees both people and things as caught up in webs of mutual interaction It therefore provides both a new theoretical intervention in some of the key themes in material culture studies including the agency of objects and the ways they were linked to social identities through the development of the notion of a biography of practice These theoretical discussions are explored through the archaeology of the Swahili on the Indian Ocean coast of eastern Africa This coast was home to a series of stonetowns containing coral architecture from the ninth century AD onwards of which Kilwa Kisiwani is the most famous considered here in regional context These stonetowns were deeply involved in maritime trade carried out among a diverse Islamic population This book suggests that the Swahili are a highly significant case study for exploration of the relationship between objects and people in the past as the society was constituted and defined through a particular material setting Further it is suggested that this relationship was subtly different than in other areas and particularly from western models that dominate prevailing analysis The case is made for an alternative form of materiality perhaps common to the wider Indian Ocean world with an emphasis on redistribution and circulation rather than on the accumulation of wealth The reader will therefore gain familiarity with a little known and fascinating culture as well as appreciating the ways that non western examples can add to our theoretical models

Handbook of Material Culture Christopher Y. Tilley,2006-01-26 Provides a critical survey of the theories concepts intellectual debates substantive domains and traditions of study characterizing the analysis of things This handbook charts an interdisciplinary field of studies that makes a fundamental contribution to an understanding of what it means to be human Symbols in Action Ian Hodder,1982-01-14 Material culture the objects made by man provides the primary data from which archaeologists have to infer the economies technologies social organization and ritual practices of extinct societies The analysis and interpretation of material culture is therefore central to any concern with archaeological theory and methodology and in order to understand better the relationship between material culture and human behaviour archaeologists need to draw upon models derived from the study of ethnographic societies First published in 1982 this book presents the results of a series of field investigations carried out in Kenya Zambia and the Sudan into the archaeological remains and material culture of contemporary small scale societies and demonstrates the way in which objects are used as symbols within social action and within particular world views and ideologies Art in Eastern Africa Marion I. Arnold,2008 This book initiated in Africa is the first in a series in bringing together leading artists designers and scholars from the East Africa region illustrating how visually creative people in Eastern Africa expressed themselves in the past through art and artefacts and how some contemporary artists and designers respond to the world within and beyond Africa A major education initiative the book is edited by Marion Arnold who has written extensively on Southern African art and has many years of university level teaching experience BOOK JACKET African Study Monographs ,1983 Islam in Kenya Mohamed Bakari,Saad Yahya,1995
