Materialities Of Communication Writing Science Series:

Materialities of Communication / Edited by Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht and K. Ludwing Pfeiffer ; Translated by William Whobrey ,1994      Inscribing Science Timothy Lenoir,1998 Metaphors of inscription and writing figure prominently in all levels of discourse in and about science The description of nature as a book written in the language of mathematics has been a common trope since at least the time of Galileo a metaphor supplemented in our own day by the characterization of DNA sequences as the code for the book of life decipherable in terms of protein semantic units An important recent direction in the fields of science and literature studies is to consider such descriptions as more than metaphoric as revelatory of the processes of signification in science more generally Nearly everywhere we look the semiotic turn is upon us Recent science and technology studies have been characterized by a rich diversity of research directions manifesting several trends apparently counter to one another On the one hand stands the rich tradition of detailed microstudies of experiments instruments and scientific practice on the other hand are grouped studies grander in scope aimed at examining science within the framework of cultural production This volume of sixteen essays seeks common ground among these different approaches by juxtaposing work from historically focused science and literature studies with work inspired by poststructuralist philosophy and semiotics The contributors are Gillian Beer Lisa Bloom Robert Brain Lorraine Daston Richard M Doyle David Gugerli Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht Friedrich Kittler Timothy Lenoir Alex Pang Philip Prodger Hans J rg Rheinberger Robin Rider Brian Rotman Simon Schaffer and Bernhard Siegert      Impagination - Layout and Materiality of Writing and Publication Ku-ming (Kevin) Chang,Anthony Grafton,Glenn W. Most,2021-01-18 This volume is a comparative study of the practice of impagination across different ages and civilizations By impagination we mean the act of placing and arranging spatially textual and other information onto a material bearer that could be made of a variety of materials papyrus bamboo slips palm leaf parchment paper and the computer screen This volume investigates three levels of impagination what is the page or other unit of the material bearer what is written or printed on it and how is writing or print placed on it It also examines the interrelations of two or all three of these levels Collectively it examines the material and materiality of the page the variety of imprints cultural and historical conventions for impagination interlinguistic encounters the control of editors scribes publishers and readers over the page inheritance borrowing and innovation economics aesthetics and socialities of imprints and impagination and the relationship of impagination to philology This volume supplements studies on mise en page and layout an important subject of codicology first by including non codex writings second by taking a closer look at the page or other unit than at the codex or book and third by its aspiration to adopt a globally comparative approach This volume brings together for comparison vast geographical realms of learning including Europe China Tibet Korea Japan and the Near Eastern and European communities in which the Hebrew Bible was transmitted This comparison is significant for Europe China and India all developed great traditions of learning which came into intensive contact The contributions to this volume are firmly rooted in local cultures and together address global comparative themes that are significant for multiple disciplines such as intellectual and cultural history of knowledge both humanistic and scientific global history literary and media studies aesthetics and studies of material culture among other fields
