HISTORICAL

A woman with dark hair and a serious expression is shown from the chest up. She is wearing a light-colored, ruffled historical dress. She is holding a large, oval mirror in front of her. The mirror's frame is ornate and appears to be made of wood or metal. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey.

Liebman, 2021-04-06 This book an examination of Judaism as it evolved over a period of approximately 1 500 years is an analysis of the Hebrew Bible and other ancient Jewish writings with special emphasis on theology and morality By the middle of the first millennium with the writing of Deuteronomy the Psalms and the works of the prophets Judaism had embraced the idea that God is a compassionate father that His relationship with His people is based on love rather than fear and that His response to their commission of sins is based on the assumption that they are capable of repentance and worthy of forgiveness In the final stage of its development culminating in the first and second centuries AD Judaism was understood to require its adherents to enact the will of God specifically to establish a community based on political economic and social laws that enforce the principles of justice and mercy And that process came to be seen as inevitably dependent on human agency the need for human beings to fulfill God's commandments In Judaism loving neighbors and strangers came to be understood as the principal and for many Jews the only way of loving God Roding Rectory ... The Fabric of Hope Glenn Tinder, 2001 This superb new volume is addressed to everyone interested in hope regardless of their religious or philosophical beliefs Glenn Tinder one of our most astute and creative thinkers probes the failure of modern secular hope and shows with great sensitivity and openness why the tenets of Christian faith offer a true and meaningful source for hope amid the widespread distress confusion and despondency of contemporary life From The Critics Jean Bethke Elshtain Glenn Tinder argues compellingly that modern despondency flows from a collapse of unreasonable optimism about our individual and collective prospects By contrast to despondency and brittle optimism Tinder calls for a renewal of hope Framed by Christian belief Tinder's elegant essay reaches out to appeal to all men and women troubled by our current condition A beautifully written and touching work Michael Novak Tinder's weighty essay on the nature spirituality and politics of hope offers an illuminating perspective on a central pillar of civilization Mary Ann Glendon A pristine intellectual and spiritual achievement by one of the most penetrating thinkers of our day Richard John Neuhaus With this essay Tinder once again vindicated his reputation as one of the most incisive thinkers and graceful writers working today His is a most powerful argument that only a hope that has come to terms with all the reasons for despair can sustain us into a future that we do not and cannot control. Tindal's wisdom is in knowing that attention to first things requires facing up to last things.
