Visual Activism in the 21st Century Stephanie Hartle,Darcy White,2022-07-28 The world is in crisis bringing activists and protesters onto the streets and into the public eye More than ever activism relies on spectacle and visibility in order to be noticed in the era of globalized capitalism and networked media At the same time a growing number of artists employ creative strategies to critique the establishment act in resistance and demand change Visual activism of this kind is not new but it is rapidly evolving This anthology presents 16 case studies of visual activism from across the globe providing an up to date picture of the impact of contemporary visual and art activism and combining a scholarly interrogation of visual activism with an examination of how it works in practice The case studies address a wide range of issues including human rights abuses state violence gender and sexuality racism migration and climate breakdown They examine a range of approaches from playful carnivalesque parades to extreme practices such as lip sewing and are drawn from a wide range of international contexts from Europe and the US to Iran India Pakistan Tunisia and China This diverse scope enables readers to consider examples comparatively noticing emerging trends and key differences to reveal how geopolitical and cultural factors play an important role in shaping activist practices This rich and timely collection provides a fresh perspective on the possibilities limitations and politics of visual activism as activists artists and curators respond to the changing world around them in this most uncertain of times Drinkwater 01 Gabi Scardi,Angela Vettese,2005 Art Theory for a Global Pluralistic Age

Steven Félix-Jäger,2019-12-02 This book extends a theory of art that addresses the present era s shift towards global pluralism By focusing on extrinsic rather than intrinsic qualities of art this book helps viewers evaluate art across cultural boundaries Art can be universally classified by an evaluation of its guiding narrative and can be understood and judged through hermeneutical methods Since artists engage culture through various local transnational and emerging global narratives it is difficult to decipher what standards are used for evaluation and which authoritative body evaluates the work This book implements a narrative hermeneutical approach to properly classify an artwork and establish its meaning and value Fashion at the Edge Caroline Evans,Caroline Edwards,2003-01-01 Caroline Evans analyses the work of experimental designers the images of fashion photographers and the spectacular fashion shows that developed in the final decade of the twentieth century to arrive at a new understanding of fashion's dark side and what it signifies. Drawing on a variety of literary and theoretical perspectives from Marx to Benjamin Evans argues that fashion plays a leading role in constructing images and meanings during periods of rapid change. She shows persuasively that fashion stands at the very centre of the contemporary where it voices some of Western culture's deepest concerns.

The Routledge Companion to Art and Activism in the Twenty-First Century Lesley Shipley, Mey-Yen Moriuchi, 2022-12-30 The Routledge Companion to Art and Activism in the Twenty First Century brings together a wide range of geographical, cultural, historical and conceptual perspectives in a single volume of new essays that facilitate a deeper understanding of the field of art activism as it stands today and as it looks towards the future. The book is a resource for multiple fields including art activism, socially engaged art and contemporary art that represent the depth and breadth of contemporary activist art worldwide. Contributors highlight predominant lines of inquiry, uncover challenges faced by scholars and practitioners of activist art and facilitate dialogue that might lead to new directions for research and practice. The editors hope that the volume will incite further conversation and collaboration among the various participants, practitioners and researchers concerned with the relationship between art and activism. The audience includes scholars and professors of modern and contemporary art, students in both graduate and upper level undergraduate programs as well as artists, curators and museum professionals. Each chapter can stand on its own, making the companion a flexible resource for students and educators working in art history, museum studies, community practice, socially engaged art, political science, sociology and ethnic and cultural studies. Chapter 17 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>

Textiles, Identity and Innovation: In Touch Gianni Montagna, Manuela Cristina Paulo Carvalho Figueiredo, 2020-05-19 D_Tex is proposed as a hub around which it is possible to look at textiles in their different forms in order to better understand, study, adapt and project them for the future. It is intended to build a flow of ideas and concepts so that participants can arrive at new ideas and concepts and work them in their own way, adapting them to their objectives and research. D_Tex is intended as a space for sharing and building knowledge around textile material in order to propose new understandings and explorations. Present in all areas of knowledge, the textile material bets on renewed social readings and its evolutions to constantly reinvent itself and enable innovative cultural and aesthetic dimensions and unexpected applications to solve questions and promote new knowledge. D_Tex proposes to promote discussion and knowledge in the different areas where textiles with all their characteristics can ensure an important contribution, combining material and immaterial knowledge, innovative and traditional techniques, technological and innovative materials and methods but also new organization and service models, different concepts and views on teaching. With the renewed idea of the intrinsic interdisciplinarity of design and sharing with different areas that support each other, the research and practice of textiles was proposed by the D_TEX Textile Design Conference 2019 held

June 19 21 2019 at the Lisbon School of Architecture of the University of Lisbon Portugal under the theme In Touch where as broadly understood as possible different areas of textiles were regarded as needing to keep in touch with each other and end users in order to promote and share the best they can offer for the welfare of their users and consumers Lucy + Jorge Orta ,2013 Potential Architecture explores the recent architectural projects of Paris based artist collaborative Lucy Jorge Orta founded in 1991 Through drawing and sculpture the artists apply ideas from cell biology to the universal concerns of community shelter migration and sustainable development Publisher description Antarctica Bartolomeo Pietromarchi,2008 Antarctica Lucy Orta,2008 The work of Lucy and Jorge Orta an Anglo Argentinian couple based in Paris ranges between art architecture and design using different techniques materials and strategies of communication Their sculptures and installations objects clothing painti Unboxed Jen Budney,Adrian Blackwell,2005 Unboxed engagements in social space is a collection of critical essays about and by artists who work between and across the borders of art architecture and performance This collection is loosely based upon a lecture series that Gallery 101 and Carleton University School of Architecture co hosted throughout the fall and winter of 2002 2003 Page 11 Lucy Orta, Jorge Orta Orta, Lucy and Orta Jorge,Gabi Scardi,Galleria Continua (Beijing, China).,2006* Lucy Orta ,1996-01-01
