Masters Martyrs War Torn:

The Quick and the Dead Robert Vaughan,1984    A Distant Bugle Robert Vaughan,1984    Martyrdom and Sacrifice in Islam Meir Hatina,2016-11-14 Over the years the belief system around self sacrifice has become key to understanding the Middle East and its political relationships with the West although much of the literature and conversation has been restricted to modern concepts of jihadism The recent spate of scholarship relating to suicide bombers and jihadists studies these concepts without a broader understanding of the principle of martyrdom This book expands on the chronology of self sacrifice within Islam and contextualises the use of suicide bombings using details of the rise of martyrdom in places such as Iraq Lebanon Chechnya and Pakistan It historicises the background in which jihad has been glorified while also exploring contemporary methods of recruitment like the use of the internet The authors pay close attention to the different sects and factions of Islam and the differing interpretations of jihad that accompany these ideologies In the current political climate a book that explores martyrdom within the framework of historical perspectives geographical regions and the influence of outside cultures is essential

Ridpath Library of Universal Literature ,1908    Beirut, Imagining the City Ghenwa Hayek,2014-10-29 Beirut is the cultural commercial and economic hub of Lebanon But to what extent has the city affected and shaped the formation and perceptions of Lebanese national identity Ghenwa Hayek here explores how anxieties over the past present and future of Beirut have been articulated through a sense of dislocation present in Lebanese writing since the 1960s Drawing on theories of cultural studies geography and history the author uses an interdisciplinary framework to explore the role that spaces from rural to urban have played and continue to play in the defining and re defining of national identity in the seventy years since the creation of the Lebanese nation state This theoretical perspective coupled with a close reading of little explored contemporary writings lead Hayek to question the predominant assumption that Lebanese novelists only became engaged in discourses about place identity and individual and social belonging with the start of the fifteen year civil war and the destruction of Beirut s city centre Instead the book shows that particular geographical imaginaries have been mobilized to describe question and debate Lebanese identity since the 1960s and that some go back even further into the late nineteenth century This re reading calls for a re evaluation of some of the most predominant assumptions about Lebanon and the processes of Lebanese identity formation across the country s modern history Examining a wide range of modern and contemporary literature Hayek charts the rise to cultural prominence of the city of Beirut as a significant player in shaping perceptions of Lebanese culture and identity
