Ngo Support Organisation Directo:

The NGO Moment Kevin O'Sullivan, 2021-10-14 This book is a study of compassion as a global project from Biafra to Live Aid Kevin O Sullivan explains how and why NGOs became the primary conduits of popular concern for the global poor between the late 1960s and the mid 1980s and shows how this shaped the West's relationship with the post colonial world Drawing on case studies from Britain Canada and Ireland as well as archival material from governments and international organisations he sheds new light on how the legacies of empire were re packaged and re purposed for the post colonial era and how a liberal definition of benevolence rooted in charity justice development and rights became the dominant expression of solidarity with the Third World In doing so the book provides a unique insight into the social cultural and ideological foundations of global civil society It reveals why this period provided such fertile ground for the emergence of NGOs and offers a fresh interpretation of how individuals in the West encountered the outside world Development NGOs and Languages Hilary Footitt, Angela M. Crack, Wine Tisseur, 2020-08-12 This book addresses for the first time the question of how development NGOs attempt to listen to communities in linguistically diverse environments NGOs are under increasing pressure to demonstrate that they listen to the people and communities that they are trying to serve but this can be an immensely challenging task where there are significant language and cultural differences However until now there has been no systematic study of the role of foreign languages in development work The authors present findings based on interviews with a wide range of NGO staff and government officials NGO archives and observations of NGO community interaction in country case studies They suggest ways in which NGOs can reform their language policies to listen to the recipients of aid more effectively New Serial Titles , 1995 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949 Involving

Men in Ending Violence against Women Joyce Wu, 2018-03-20 Involving men to stop violence against women is a global trend with celebrity endorsed campaigns such as HeforShe and White Ribbon being hailed as progress in changing male behaviour But the question remains Has men's involvement resulted in positive change or has it reinforced the belief that women need to be rescued by men Involving Men in Ending Violence against Women provides a feminist analysis of men's motivations for joining violence against women's movement Through extensive fieldwork in Afghanistan Pakistan and East Timor this innovative title explores the roles men play in violence against women programs Indeed while there are growing voices that question male advocacy and activism in the violence against women campaign this is the first monograph which provides empirical and critical analysis of how men's feminist involvement is translated into benevolent patriarchy Seeking to subvert mainstream narratives which accept male activism without questions this controversial yet enlightening title will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students including postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Gender and Sexualities Political Science Feminist Studies and Southeast Asian Studies South South Bulletin , 1992 The Gulf States and the Horn of Africa Robert Mason, Simon Mabon, 2022-01-25 The Gulf States and the Horn of Africa takes a deep dive into the complexities of power projection political rivalry and conflict across the Red Sea and beyond Focusing on the nature of interregional connections between the Gulf and the Horn it explores the multifaceted nature of relations between states and the two increasingly important subregions Bringing together scholars working on and in both regions the book considers strategic competition between Saudi Arabia and Iran and between the UAE and both Qatar and Turkey along with other international engagement such as joint anti piracy operations counterterrorism cooperation security assistance base agreements and economic development Drawing on a range of subject expertise and field research across case study countries the volume adds to the sparse literature on the regional and international politics of the Horn of Africa and Red Sea gleaning specific insights from contemporary reflections across the book This is essential reading for students and researchers interested in the Horn of Africa and the evolving regional geopolitics of the Gulf
