Ngo Support Organisations:

Decentralised Government and NGOs D. Rajasekhar,1999 The Power and Limits of NGOs Sarah E.

Mendelson,John K. Glenn,2002-09-11 Since the end of the Cold War a virtual army of nongovernmental organizations NGOs from the United States Britain Germany and elsewhere in Europe have flocked to Central and Eastern Europe and Eurasia These NGOs are working on such diverse tasks as helping to establish competitive political parties elections and independent media as well as trying to reduce ethnic conflict This important book is among the few efforts to assess the impact of these international efforts to build democratic institutions The case studies presented here provide a portrait of the mechanisms by which ideas commonly associated with democratic states have evolved in formerly communist states revealing conditions that help as well as hurt the process

Ragged Trousered NGOs Charles Buxton,2019-05-17 Ragged Trousered NGOs is a compelling first hand account of the NGO sector and wider civil society over the past 40 years examining how and why people take collective action and engage in social development projects The book explores different organisational and methodological aspects of NGO work and social action asking what was possible to achieve at a grass roots level at different times in different economic and political contexts in the East and West Adopting a critical perspective the author argues that social action continues to play a vital and varied role and yet it struggles to challenge deep rooted power relations and traditional forms of behaviour in today s unequal world In particular the book draws on examples from the former Soviet Union in transition and the UK s voluntary sector over the last 40 years with a view to challenging Eurocentric views about organisations and communities The analysis adopts a Gramscian view of hegemony and an internationalist and anti war position on key issues arising in recent armed conflicts and the new cold war with Russia The book concludes by addressing the challenges for development workers noting the precarious nature of NGO work despite its many achievements and suggesting ways in which social activists can pick up more strength and support This book s practical perspective on progressive forms of organisational management will be of considerable interest to civil society and NGO development workers as well as to researchers and students in the fields of international development politics sociology and regional studies

The Politics of NGOs in Southeast Asia Gerard Clarke,2006-05-17 The Politics of NGOs in Southeast Asia traces the history of the emergence of NGOs in the Philippines and southeast Asia and the political factors which encouraged this The main focus is on the period from the mid 1990s when NGOs first became a notable force in the region It documents the complex relations between NGOs and other political actors including the state organised religion foreign donors the business sector and underground insurgent groups and their impact on NGO strategy

Mapping of Faith-based Organisations (FBOs) and Non-governmental Organisations (NGOs) Support for Education in Malawi ,2004 The Politics of NGOs in Indonesia Bob S. Hadiwinata,2003-08-29 This book deals with two major issues how Indonesian NGOs survived under Suharto s authoritarian rule and how NGOs contributed to the promotion of democracy in the post Suharto era If

NGOs are to change from development to movement in democratic post Suharto Indonesia they must adjust not only their management and working style but also their very ideology This comprehensive study will be an important book for scholars interested in Asian studies Indonesian politics and development studies Stakeholders Ian Smillie,Henny Helmich,Judith Randel,Tony German,2013-11-05 This unique study from the OECD Development Centre presents a comprehensive review by independent experts of the relationships and division of responsibility between the 22 member governments of the OECD Development Assistance Committee DAC and NGOs from these donor countries working in international development Additional chapters cover the roles of the European Union and the World Bank Among other themes the book looks at two very significant issues First at the way in which an overemphasis on evaluation may be leading NGOs to focus purely on measuring their output thus choosing activities which are easily accountable Second it examines the important impacts of the evolution in the funding relationship between governments and NGOs from matching grants to contracts where NGOs must increasingly compete for contracts Social Capacity Building through Applied Theatre Au Yi-Man,John O'Toole,2024-07-24 As experts in both applied theatre and education Au Yi Man and John O Toole outline how applied theatre techniques can be used to support workers in the human services to develop crucial skills such as resilience imagination critical thinking and reflection Highlighting under emphasised skills and qualities in the human services professions this book combines theory with context specific practice to support capacity building across sectors Drawing on a detailed study of NGO workers learning to use applied theatre techniques in professional development the book offers insight into the learning and experiences of the participants and how these can be applied to future training programs The book also provides a deeper understanding of how adult learners from different backgrounds and levels of experience approach their professional training Rich with resources the book features complete course examples including theatre of the oppressed process drama and educational theatre as core drama techniques Opening up new opportunities for applied theatre practitioners and educators this book is a must read for teachers in any human services field intending to use drama or applied theatre in their training Organisation Culture of NGOs Jimmy Dabhi,2008 Study carried out in three non governmental organizations in Ahmad b d India whose names have been concealed by the author NGOs and Governments Jon Bennett,1997 Union The Open Society Institute NGOs in Development W. J. O. Jeppe,J. P. J. Van Baalen,1992 Non-governmental Organisations and Governments Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. Development Centre,1993 Development NGOs Case Studies Involving Non-governmental Organisations in Community Forestry Stephen J. Keeling,1996 NGO Support Organisations Ruth Jolly,1999 This publication synthesizes debates during an international workshop It brings together leaders of support organizations from around the world whose primary function is to work at a local national and regional level in a non funding role to support the development of NGOs and the NGO sector A Directory of Non-governmental Organizations in Botswana Pony M.
