Language Learning Online: Towards Best Practice Uschi Felix,2026-02-02 This important and accessible book identifies the key elements in the quest for best practice in online language teaching The authors all of them international experts who have made significant contributions to the debate about how to exploit the new technologies consider online language teaching from three crucial perspectives design tools and pedagogy Their recommendations are such that they can actually be realised in spite of the limitations of today s educational environments The book demonstrates that the new technologies offer far greater potential for authentic encounters and constructivist learning than even the best classroom simulations that automated exercise and feedback structures can be individualised and meaningful and that if we have to teach fully by distance these ventures no longer need to represent impoverished versions of live classes but can engender a strong sense of community To achieve this we need to understand what elements constitute good design both in technical and pedagogical terms to think seriously about providing the best feedback possible and to have the courage to take the risks associated with letting go of traditional learner teacher relationships Multilingualism, Second Language Learning, and Gender Aneta Pavlenko,Adrian Blackledge,Ingrid

Piller,Marya Teutsch-Dwyer,2011-04-20 This volume presents a comprehensive introduction to the study of second language learning multilingualism and gender An impressive array of papers situated within a feminist poststructuralist framework demonstrates how this framework allows for a deeper understanding of second language learning a number of language contact phenomena intercultural communication and critical language pedagogy The volume has wide appeal to students and scholars in the fields of language and gender sociolinguistics SLA anthropology and language education NEST
