Moral Self:

The Moral Self Gil G. Noam, Thomas E. Wren, 1993 This follow up to The Moral Domain carries forward the exploration of new ways of modeling moral behavior. This follow up to The Moral Domain carries forward the exploration of new ways of modeling moral behavior. Whereas the first volume emphasized the work of Lawrence Kohlberg and the tradition of cognitive development, The Moral Self presents a paradigm that also incorporates noncognitive structures of selfhood. The concerns of the sixteen essays include the diversity of moral outlooks, the dynamics of creating a moral self, cognitive and noncognitive prerequisites of the psychological development of autonomy and moral competence and motivation, and moral personality. Contributors and Content: Part I Conceptual Foundations: Harry Frankfurt, Am lie Oksenberg Rorty, Ernst Tugendhat, Ernest S. Wolf, Thomas Wren. Part II Building a New Paradigm: Augusto Blasi, Anne Colby, William Damon, Helen Haste, Mordecai Nisan, Gil G. Noam, Larry Nucci, John Lee. Part III Empirical Investigation: Monika Keller, Wolfgang Edelstein, Lothar Krappmann, Leo Montada, Gertrud Nunner, Winkler, Ervin Staub. The Moral Self Pauline Chazan, 2002-11-01 The Moral Self addresses the question of how morality enters into our lives. Pauline Chazan draws upon psychology, moral philosophy, and literary interpretation to rebut the view that morality's role is to limit desire and control self-love. Perserving the ancients connection between what is good for the self and what is morally good, Chazan argues that a certain kind of care for the self is central to moral agency. Her intriguing argument begins with a critical examination of the views of Hume, Rousseau, and Hegel. The constructive part of the book takes a more unusual turn by synthesising the work on the analyst Heinz Kohut and Aristotle into Chazan's own positive account, which is then illustrated by the use of Russian literature. The Moral Self Alexander Knox White, Alexander Macbeth, 1923 Psychology of the Moral Self Bernard Bosanquet, 1965 Psychology of the Moral Self Bernard Bosanquet, 1904 Moral Self-Regard Lara Denis, 2013-09-13 Moral Self-Regard draws on the work of Marcia, Baron Joseph Butler, and Allen Wood among others in this first extensive study of the nature, foundation, and significance of duties to oneself in Kant's moral theory. Moral Development, Self, and Identity Daniel K. Lapsley, Darcia Narvaez, 2004-04-26 This volume examines the psychological, social, relational, and cultural foundations of the most basic moral commitments. It begins by looking at the seminal writings of Augusto Blasi, whose writings on moral cognition, the development of self-identity, and moral personality have transformed the research agenda in moral psychology. This work is now the starting point of all discussion about the relationship between self and morality, the developmental grounding of the moral personality, and the moral integration of cognition, emotion, and behavior. Indeed, it is now widely believed that organizing self-understanding around basic moral commitments is crucial to the formation of a moral identity, which in turn underwrites moral conduct. Using Blasi's work as a point of departure, a distinguished interdisciplinary and international group of scholars have contributed essays summarizing their own theoretical and empirical research on these topics. This book features new theories of moral functioning that range across several psychological literatures, including social cognition cognitive science and personality development Examining the social relational communitarian and cultural aspects of moral self identity it provides a comprehensive account of moral personality Uniformly integrative field expanding and on the cutting edge of research on moral development and personality the book appeals to scholars developmental theorists and graduate students interested in issues of moral development education and behavior as well as cognitive development theory The Moral Self Alexander Knox White,Alexander MacBeath,1926 Atlas of Moral Psychology
