Over The Abyss My Life In Soviet Special Operations:

Over the Abyss I. G. Starinov, 1995 THE ONLY ACCOUNT IN ENGLISH ABOUT LRRPs IN THE USSR Colonel I G Starinov who began as a mere private in the Red Army and went on to become Russia's top demolitions expert is a rare eyewitness to the entire history of the Soviet regime and one of the few to survive disagreeing with Stalin's military decisions From partisan operations in the Russian Civil War through training and fighting with Spanish guerrillas against Franco to using the first radio detonated mine to kill a German general Starinov narrates events never before revealed in the West Caught by accident right at the border when the Germans attacked in WWII Starinov went on to play a crucial role in the creation and training of a virtual partisan army By wreaking havoc with the German railroad supply lines these guerrillas were crucial to Soviet success at the front Now in his nineties Starinov survived warfare and even more terrifying political purges to provide this personal firsthand look of the some of the greatest dramas in history Holocaust: Responses to the persecution and mass murder of the Jews David Cesarani, Sarah Kavanaugh, 2004 The KGB's Poison Factory Boris Volodarsky, 2013-11-30 In late November 2006 the world was shaken by the ruthless assassination in London of Alexander Litvinenko a former Lt Col of the Russian security service FSB The murder was the most notorious crime committed by the Russian intelligence on foreign soil in over three decades The author Boris Volodarsky who was consulted by the Metropolitan Police during the investigation and remains in close contact with Litvinenko's widow is a former Russian military intelligence officer and an international expert in special operations His narrative reveals that since 1917 beginning with Lenin and his Cheka the Russian security services have regularly carried out bespoke poisoning operations all over the world to eliminate the enemies of the Kremlin The author proves that the Litvinenko's poisoning is just one episode in the chain of murders that continues until the present day Some of these assassinations or attempted assassinations are already known others are revealed here for the first time Uniquely Volodarsky has had a personal involvement in almost every each of the 20 cases from the radioactive thallium poisoning of the Soviet defector Nikolai Khokhlov in Frankfurt in September 1957 to the ricin umbrella murder of the Bulgarian dissident Georgi Markov in London in 1978 Here for the fan of murder thrillers and modern history alike is a cracking good read In brilliant light we see what lay for nearly a century behind the London polonium poisoning of British citizen Alexander Litvinenko former Russian It was just one recent hit by the world's most prolific serial killer the Russian state With original research guided by his insider's eye and scholarly care Boris Volodarsky recounts scores of murders Assassination emerges as state policy as institutionalized bureaucracy as day to day routine as laboratory science as a branch of medicine researching ways not to stave off death but to deliver it in apparently innocent or accidental forms and as engineering technology devising ever new devices to meet each new requirement from umbrella tips and cigarette cases and rolled up newspapers to Litvinenko's teacup Tennent H Bagley former CIA chief of Soviet Bloc counterintelligence
