Overhearing Film Dialogue:

Overhearing Film Dialogue Sarah Kozloff, 2000-03-30 Through informative discussion of dozens of classic and contemporary films from Bringing Up Baby to Terms of Endearment from Stagecoach to Reservoir Dogs This text provides a full length study of the use of dialogue in American film Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood

Storytelling Mark Minett, 2020-12-22 Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood Storytelling reveals an Altman barely glimpsed in previous critical accounts of the filmmaker This re examination of his seminal work during the New Hollywood period of the early 1970s including M A S H Brewster McCleod McCabe Mrs Miller Images The Long Goodbye Thieves Like Us California Split and Nashville sheds new light on both the films and the filmmaker reframing Altman as a pragmatic innovator whose work exceeds but is also grounded in the norms of classical Hollywood storytelling American Eccentric

Cinema Kim Wilkins, 2019-02-21 Since the late 1990s a new language has emerged in film scholarship and criticism in response to the popularity of American directors such as Wes Anderson Charlie Kaufman and David O Russell Increasingly adjectives like quirky cute and smart are used to describe these American films with a focus on their ironic and sometimes deliberately comical stories character situations and tones Kim Wilkins argues that beyond the seemingly superficial descriptions American eccentric cinema presents a formal and thematic eccentricity that is distinct to the American context She distinguishes these films from mainstream Hollywood cinema as they exhibit irregularities in characterization tone and setting and deviate from established generic conventions Each chapter builds a case for this position through detailed film analyses and comparisons to earlier American traditions such as the New Hollywood cinema of the 1960s and 1970s American Eccentric Cinema promises to challenge the notion of irony in American contemporary cinema and questions the relationship of irony to a complex national and individual identity Verse, Voice, and Vision Marlisa Santos, 2013-09-26

Although it is a somewhat underrepresented form of literature in popular sensibility poetry finds relevance in the modern world through its appearance in cinema Film adaptations of poems and depictions of poets on the screen date back to the silent era and continue to the present day However there have been few serious studies of how cinema has represented the world of poetic expression In Verse Voice and Vision Poetry and the Cinema Marlisa Santos has compiled essays that explore the relationship between one of the world's oldest art forms poetry and one of the world's newest art forms film The book is divided into three sections poets on film poetry as film and film as poetry Topics include analyses of poet biopics such as Mrs Parker and the Vicious Circle filmic representations of poets or poetic studies including Pyasa films inspired by particular poems such as Splendor in the Grass and the avant garde phenomenon of the poem film such as The Tree of Life Poetic influences considered in this volume range from William Shakespeare to e e cummings and the films discussed hail from several different countries including the U S the U K India China Italy and Argentina Featuring a great diversity in the age genres and countries of origin of the films these essays provide an in depth look at how poetry has been interpreted on film over the years By addressing a heretofore unexamined aspect of film studies Verse Voice and Vision will appeal to fans and scholars of both literature and cinema Me and You and Memento and Fargo J.J. Murphy,2007-03-15 Within the last twenty five years an enormous burst of creative production has emerged from independent filmmakers From Stranger than Paradise 1984 and Slacker 1991 to Gus Van Sant's Elephant 2003 and Miranda July's Me and You and Everyone We Know 2005 indie cinema has become part of mainstream culture But what makes these films independent Is it simply a matter of budget and production values Or are there aesthetic qualities that set them off from ordinary Hollywood entertainment In this groundbreaking new study J J Murphy argues that the independent feature film from the 1980s to the present has developed a distinct approach of its own centering on new and different conceptions of cinematic storytelling The film script is the heart of the creative originality to be found in the independent movement Even directors noted for their idiosyncratic visual style or the handling of performers typically originate their material and write their own scripts By studying the principles underlying the independent screenplay we gain a direct sense of the originality of this new trend in American cinema Me and You and Memento and Fargo also presents a unique vision for the aspiring screenwriter Most screenwriting manuals and guidebooks on the market rely on formulas believed to generate saleable Hollywood films Many writers present a three act paradigm as gospel and proceed to lay down very stringent rules for characterization plotting timing of climaxes and so on while others who appear to be more open about such rules turn out to be just as inflexible in their advice Through in depth critical analyses of some of the most significant independent films of recent years J J Murphy emphasizes the crucial role that novelty can play in the screenwriting process Canadian Journal of Film Studies ,2003 A Short Guide to Writing about Film Timothy Corrigan,2004 This best selling text is a succinct guide to thinking critically and writing precisely about film With numerous student and professional examples along the way this engaging and practical guide progresses from taking notes and writing first drafts to creating polished essays and comprehensive research projects Moving from movie reviews to theoretical and critical essays the text demonstrates how an analysis of a film becomes more subtle and rigorous as part of a compositional process Both an introduction to film study and a practical writing guide this brief text introduces students to film terms and the major film theories to enable them to write more critically For individuals who want to think and write critically about film The Gangster Film Ron Wilson,2015 Examines the gangster film in its historical context with an emphasis on the ways the image of the gangster has adapted and changed Schirmer Encyclopedia of Film Barry Keith Grant,2007 This reference source covers all aspects of the cinema including film history production national cinemas genre theory and criticism and cultural contexts Shifting Landscapes Miyase Christensen,Nezih Erdođan,2008 Continuity and change are the two major trends that mark European film and media vistas This book presents various accounts of filmic and televisual media text and form mediated politics media policy globalization diasporic media and multiculturalism Language George Melville Bolling,Bernard Bloch,2000 The Best Books for Academic Libraries

What Women Watched Marsha F. Cassidy,2005-05 In this pathfinding book based on original archival research Marsha F Cassidy offers the first thorough analysis of daytime television s earliest and most significant women s genres appraising from a feminist perspective what women watched before soap opera rose to prominence After providing a comprehensive history of the early days of women s programming across the nation Cassidy offers a critical discussion of the formats programs and celebrities that launched daytime TV in America Kate Smith s variety show and the famed singer s unsuccessful transition from patriotic radio star to 1950s TV idol the charm boys Garry Moore Arthur Godfrey and Art Linkletter whose programs honored women s participation but in the process established the dominance of male hosts on TV and the misery shows Strike It Rich and Glamour Girl and the controversy both critical and legal they stirred up Cassidy then turns to NBC s Home show starring the urbane Arlene Francis who infused the homemaking format with Manhattan sophistication and the ambitious daily anthology drama Matinee Theater which strove to differentiate itself from soap opera and become a national theater of the air She concludes with an analysis of four popular audience participation shows of the era the runaway hit Queen for a Day Ralph Edwards s daytime show of surprises It Could Be You Who Do You Trust starring a youthful Johnny Carson and The Big Payoff featuring Bess Myerson the country s first Jewish Miss America Cassidy s close feminist reading of these shows clearly demonstrates how daytime TV mirrored the cultural pressures inconsistencies and ambiguities of the postwar era
