Oxford First Thesaurus:

Oxford First Illustrated Dictionary Andrew Delahunty, 2016-02-09 The Oxford First Illustrated Dictionary beautifully illustrated by well known picture book artist Emma Chichester Clark is the perfect first building block for 5-7 year olds to engage with words and language. Over 2000 entries give clear meanings and definitions, parts of speech, word forms, word families, synonyms and opposites to build vocabulary and first literacy skills. Not just a dictionary, this unique book brings to life the world of fairy tales, nursery rhymes and picture books that children love. Winnie the Pooh and Geogie Porgie appear alongside Aladdin and Cinderella in the innovative example sentences. Rhyming words, little words hiding in big words and riddles provide plenty of opportunities for fun word play along with amusing word jokes and child friendly word origins. The entry for crocodile tells the child that the word comes from a Greek word meaning lizard and ends with the joke 'What's a crocodile's favourite game? Snap!'. This wealth of information and fun with words is presented in a contemporary, easy to use, engaging layout creating the most accessible and affordable dictionary and gift book combination, the perfect buy for Christmas and holidays as well as for everyday use.

Early Years Non-fiction

Margaret Mallett, 2003 How do we make sure children's first introduction to the world of non-fiction is enjoyable and life-enhancing? What criteria do we use to ensure a collection of quality books for pleasure? Mallett sets out to answer these questions in this book.

Choosing and Using Fiction and Non-Fiction 3-11 Margaret Mallett, 2010-07-02 Winner of the United Kingdom Literacy Association's Author Award 2011 for its contribution to extending children's literacy. Praise for the book: This book is about making readers. A compact summary of its contents would not do it justice. It is the account of a life's work and it deserves thanks and readers. Margaret Meek Books for Keeps online Number 185 November 2010 This book is a cornucopia of varied pleasures offering something for all tastes presented with an awareness of the complexities of the field and communicated with commitment, enthusiasm and deep knowledge. Eve Bearne English 4 11 the primary school journal of The English Association Number 42 Summer 2011 Choosing and Using Fiction and Non-Fiction 3 11 is a guide to the many kinds of text we want children to encounter use and enjoy during their nursery and primary school years So children s non fiction literature including autobiography biography information and reference texts is given equal status with fiction nursery rhymes picturebooks novels traditional tales playscripts and poetry The author addresses important issues and allows the voices of teachers reviewers and children to be heard The book supports teachers as they help children on their journey to becoming insightful and critical readers of non fiction and sensitive and reflective readers of fiction It also contains suggestions for practice which are in the spirit of the more flexible and creative approach to learning towards which primary schools are moving It includes help on using criteria to select quality texts of all kinds annotated booklists for each kind of text for different age groups suggestions for keeping a balance between print and screen based texts case studies showing teachers and children using texts in interesting and imaginative ways to support learning in English lessons and across the curriculum advice on developing children s visual and multimodal literacy guidance on using the school library and embedding study skills in children s wider purposes and learning critiques of key theoretical perspectives and research projects Although the main readership will be primary and student teachers it is hoped that the book will be of interest and use to anyone concerned with the role of texts in children s learning
