P H Newby:

Something to Answer For P. H. Newby, 2012-10-04 P H Newby's seventeenth novel Something to Answer For was assured of a place in literary history when it won the inaugural Booker Prize in 1969. It was 1956 and Townrow was in Port Said of these two facts he is reasonably certain. He had been summoned by the widow of his deceased friend Elie Khoury. She is convinced Elie was murdered but nobody seems to agree with her. What of Leah Strauss the mistress. And of the invading British paratroops. Only an Englishman surely would take for granted that the British would have behaved themselves. In this disorientating world Townrow must reassess the rules by which he has been living his life to wonder whether he too may have something to answer for. Beautifully written, shot through with crisp mordant wit and Newby plays out his narrative with consummate skill.
