Alignment and Subjecthood in Latin Claudia Fabrizio,2025-10-02 This book provides a detailed empirically supported and theoretically informed examination of alignment and subject assignment in Latin The author challenges the myth of Latin as a language defined solely by a nominative accusative alignment system through a comprehensive analysis of a wide range of constructions across the history of the language within a single consistent framework In accordance with the idea of a tension between a syntactically principled system and a semantically oriented system of alignment the book offers an in depth exploration of quirky case and alternating patterns of argument realization The analysis demonstrates that alongside a tendency to neutralize the semantic roles of arguments for syntactic purposes Latin displays numerous grammatical patterns that do depend on the semantic relation between the arguments and their predicate The fundamental assumption is that the underlying principles of lexical semantics i e for verbs their Aktionsart and their argument structures are crucial in accounting for those marked patterns that do not fit the canonical nominative accusative alignment The book also defends the idea that subjecthood in Latin should be understood as a split relation between a Privileged Syntactic Argument and a pivot distinguishing between coding and behavioral properties of subjects The findings shed new light on the grammar of Latin and make a strong case for a rich and fully analyzable lexicon in the architecture of grammar

Flavian Poetry Ruud R. Nauta,Johannes J.L Smolenaars,Harm-Jan van Dam,2017-07-31 The reign of the Flavian emperors 69 96 saw the production of a large and varied body of Latin poetry the epics of Valerius Flaccus Silius Italicus and Statius the Silvae of the same Statius and the Epigrams of Martial This poetry long seen as derivative or decadent is now increasingly appreciated for the daring originality of its responses both to the Latin literary tradition and to the contemporary Roman world In the summer of 2003 the first ever international conference on Flavian poetry was held at Groningen The Netherlands bringing together leading scholars in the field from Europe North America and Australasia This volume offers a selection of the papers delivered on that occasion
