Monument Of Terror:

Monument of Terror Victor Jones, 1969-02-01 Victims and Memory After Terrorism Ana Milošević, 2024-06-03

This book contributes to the study of collective memory and the sociology of terrorism by analysing the role of memorialization in relation to terrorism its victims and the broader society While various social scientists have extensively theorized and analysed how trauma and memory interact grow apart and reinforce each other this book puts the rights and needs of the victims centre stage Departing from the prescriptive legal blueprints of memory this book introduces the concept of memorial needs to challenge and complement existing victimological frameworks It critically assesses the efficacy of public memorialization and its success in assisting those affected by violence by exploring how victims engage with memory and memorialization It investigates personal and collective responses to urban terrorism in Europe that have taken a wide range of forms including media coverage spontaneous memorials and public mobilizations literary and artistic works trials and controversial counter terrorism measures Making a case against the fetishization of memory as an overarching answer to curing visible and invisible wounds provoked by violence Victims and Memory After Terrorism sends out a practical invitation to the field to repair symbolic reparations in a way that memorialisation is not just an expression of potential an aspiration for a more moral and just society and a promise of healing for the victimised An accessible and compelling read this book will appeal to students and scholars of victimology criminology sociology politics and those interested in the relationship between collective memory and terrorism

Preaching that Confronts Confederate Monuments David M. Stark, 2025-10-30 Confederate monuments preach at times subtly at other times overtly about who we are who God is and how we should live together David M Stark looks at the way many Confederate monuments provided ongoing opportunities for commemorative speeches and ceremonies that would entrench racist and white supremacist ideologies in the American South Stark examines key speeches and proclamations given around monuments to the Lost Cause such as Julian Carr s Silent Sam speech 1913 and Archer Anderson s speech at the dedication of a monument to Robert E Lee 1890 reading these as theological and homiletic moments Stark then moves on to construct a homiletic that can confront such monuments and the racist preaching ideologies around them In developing this counter homiletic Stark analyzes the preaching strategies written into Confederate monuments and highlights best practices from recent counter proclamations that deconstruct the troubling rhetoric and theology of Confederate monument dedication speeches Finally Stark presents insights from naming commission reports and clergy interviews about the values mission and leadership needed to work for ongoing change

Paliewicz, 2020-12-28 In December 2018 the United States Senate unanimously passed the nation s first antilynching act the Justice for Victims of Lynching Act For the first time in US history legislators representing the American people classified lynching as a federal hate crime While lynching histories and memories have received attention among communication scholars and some interdisciplinary studies of traditional civil rights memorials exist contemporary studies often fail to examine the politicized nature of the spaces This volume represents the first investigation of the National Memorial for Peace and Justice and the Legacy Museum both of which strategically make clear the various links between America s history of racial terror and contemporary mass incarceration conditions the mistreatment of juveniles and capital punishment Racial Terrorism A Rhetorical Investigation of Lynching focuses on several key social agents and organizations that played vital roles in the public and legal consciousness raising that finally led to the passage of the act Marouf A Hasian Jr and Nicholas S Paliewicz argue that the advocacy of attorney Bryan Stevenson the work of the Equal Justice Initiative EJI and the efforts of curators at Montgomery s new Legacy Museum all contributed to the formation of a rhetorical culture that set the stage at last for this hallmark lynching legislation The authors examine how the EJI uses spaces of remembrance to confront audiences with race conscious messages and measure to what extent those messages are successful Heritage, Democracy and the Public Torgrim Sneve Guttormsen, Grete Swensen, 2016-12-05 What is the significance of heritage for how welfare is defined What function does heritage have in the public realm and how is heritage becoming a resource for citizens to gain influence in society Who and what defines the public debates and the politics about heritage Is there a knowledge gap between research communities management and the public understanding and use of heritage These are some of the questions that the authors of this book reflect upon They provide Nordic perspectives on how the management of the past takes place and how it is carried out in the service of the society offering new interpretations of the role of heritage in present society where institutional heritage management has become just one of the many and multiple ways in which different publics engage with cultural heritage This book addresses the main challenges faced by heritage managers today in light of the changing understanding of heritage in society Where Our History was Made John Thomson Faris, 1923 Monument Reporter, 1912 Scenes of Fighting and Martyrdom Council for the Preservation of Monuments to Resistance and Martyrdom, 1968 The Elves Ludwig Tieck, 1871 The Great Trial of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Chipman Parks, 1900 Consuelo George Sand, 1870 The Pocket Instructor: Writing Amanda Irwin Wilkins, Keith Shaw, 2024-06-11 Fifty easy to deploy active learning exercises for teaching academic writing in any field The Pocket Instructor Writing offers fifty practical exercises for teaching students the core elements of successful academic writing The exercises created by faculty from a broad range of disciplines and institutions are organized along the arc of a writing project from brainstorming and asking analytical questions to drafting revising and sharing work with audiences outside traditional academia They present students with engaging intellectual challenges to work through together arriving at generalizable lessons that transfer well across the humanities social sciences and natural sciences Students will learn to articulate a thoughtful question develop a persuasive thesis analyze complex evidence and engage responsibly with sources The Pocket Instructor Writing offers teachers concrete ideas about how to cultivate habits of radical revision and create a classroom community with an ethos of trust where students learn to give meaningful feedback Written for both novice and veteran instructors this essential guide will benefit faculty in any field who hope to improve student writing in their courses Key features Exercises by experienced faculty from a wide range of disciplines and institutions Step by step instructions with instructor insights for each exercise A Writing Lexicon for terms such as motive thesis analysis evidence and method Guidance for avoiding plagiarism Index and cross references to aid in course planning Ancient Monuments and Holy Writ William Pakenham Walsh,1879 After Dictatorship Peter Hoeres,Hubertus Knabe,2023-02-20 Numerous studies concerning transitional justice exist However comparatively speaking the effects actually achieved by measures for coming to terms with dictatorships have seldom been investigated There is an even greater lack of transnational analyses This volume contributes to closing this gap in research To this end it analyses processes of coming to terms with the past in seven countries with different experiences of violence and dictatorship Experts have drawn up detailed studies on transitional justice in Albania Argentina Ethiopia Chile Rwanda South Africa and Uruguay Their analyses constitute the empirical material for a comparative study of the impact of measures introduced within the context of transitional justice It becomes clear that there is no sure formula for dealing with dictatorships Successes and deficits alike can be observed in relation to the individual instruments of transitional justice from criminal prosecution to victim compensation Nevertheless the South American states perform much better than those on the African continent This depends less on the instruments used than on political and social factors Consequently strategies of transitional justice should focus more closely on these contextual factors The J.T.
