Queer Anxieties of Young Adult Literature and Culture Derritt Mason,2020-12-28 Selected as the Children s Literature Association s 2023 Honor Book Young adult literature featuring LGBTQ characters is booming In the 1980s and 1990s only a handful of such titles were published every year Recently these numbers have soared to over one hundred annual releases Queer characters are also appearing more frequently in film on television and in video games This explosion of queer representation however has prompted new forms of longstanding cultural anxieties about adolescent sexuality What makes for a good coming out story Will increased queer representation in young people s media teach adolescents the right lessons and help queer teens live better happier lives What if these stories harm young people instead of helping them In Queer Anxieties of Young Adult Literature and Culture Derritt Mason considers these questions through a range of popular media including an assortment of young adult books Caper in the Castro the first ever queer video game online fan communities and popular television series Glee and Big Mouth Mason argues themes that generate the most anxiety about adolescent culture queer visibility risk taking HIV AIDS dystopia and horror and the promise that It Gets Better and the threat that it might not challenge us to rethink how we read and engage with young people s media Instead of imagining queer young adult literature as a subgenre defined by its visibly queer characters Mason proposes that we see queer YA as a body of transmedia texts with blurry boundaries one that coheres around affect specifically anxiety instead of content

American Literary Realism, Critical Theory, and Intellectual Prestige, 1880-1995 Phillip Barrish,2001-02-19 Focusing on key works of late nineteenth and early twentieth century American literary realism Phillip Barrish traces the emergence of new ways of gaining intellectual prestige that is new ways of gaining cultural recognition as unusually intelligent sensitive or even wise Through extended readings of works by Henry James William Dean Howells Abraham Cahan and Edith Wharton Barrish emphasises the differences between literary realist modes of intellectual and cultural authority and those associated with the rise of the social sciences In doing so he greatly refines our understanding of the complex relationship between realist writing and masculinity Barrish further argues that understanding the dynamics of intellectual status in realist literature provides new analytic purchase on intellectual prestige in recent critical theory Here he focuses on such figures as Lionel Trilling Paul de Man John Guillory and Judith Butler

Hawthorne and Melville Jana L. Argersinger,Leland S. Person,2008 Herman Melville and Nathaniel Hawthorne met in 1850 and enjoyed for sixteen months an intense but brief friendship Taking advantage of new interpretive tools such as queer theory globalist studies political and social ideology marketplace analysis psychoanalytical and philosophical applications to literature masculinist theory and critical studies of race the twelve essays in this book focus on a number of provocative personal professional and literary ambiguities existing between the two writers Jana L Argersinger and Leland S Person introduce the volume with a lively summary of the known biographical facts of the two writers relationship and an overview of the relevant scholarship to date Some of the essays that follow broach the possibility of sexual dimensions to the relationship a question that looms like a grand hooded phantom over the field of Melville Hawthorne studies Questions of influence Hawthorne s on Moby Dick and Pierre and Melville s on The Blithedale Romance to mention only the most obvious instances are also discussed Other topics covered include professional competitiveness Melville s search for a father figure masculine ambivalence in the marketplace and political literary aspects of nationalism transcendentalism race and other defining issues of Hawthorne and Melville s times Roughly half of the essays focus on biographical issues the others take literary perspectives The essays are informed by a variety of critical approaches as well as by new historical insights and new understandings of the possibilities that existed for male friendships in nineteenth century American culture     The Monumental City George Washington Howard,1873     The Monumental City, Its Past

White Liberal Identity Literary Pedagogy and Classic American Realism brings literary works from the turn of the last century face to face with some of the dilemmas and paradoxes that currently define white liberal identity in the United States Phillip Barrish develops fresh analytic and pedagogical tools for probing contemporary white liberalism while also offering new critical insights and classroom approaches to American literary realism New ground is broken by using bold close analysis of works by canonical American realist writers such as Henry James Edith Wharton Mark Twain and Kate Chopin These contexts include an affirmative action court case the liberal arts classroom and the war on drugs as well as current debates about the United States role on the international scene Invoking a methodology that he calls critical presentism Barrish s book offers a fresh response to that perennial classroom question often posed most forcefully by students committed to progressive political agendas why devote so much time and effort to detailed analyses of canonical American literature This book makes specific contributions not only to American literary and cultural studies but also to critical race theory masculinity studies and critical pedagogy from back cover      Proceedings at the Annual Meeting of the Bunker Hill
