Monumental Propaganda:

Monumental Propaganda Vladimir Voinovich, 2007-12-18 From Vladimir Voinovich one of the great satirists of contemporary Russian literature comes a new comic novel about the absurdity of politics and the place of the individual in the sweep of human events Monumental Propaganda Voinovich's first novel in twelve years centers on Aglaya Stepanovna Revkina a true believer in Stalin who finds herself bewildered and beleaguered in the relative openness of the Khrushchev era She believes her greatest achievement was to have browbeaten her community into building an iron statue of the supreme leader which she moves into her apartment after his death And despite the ebb and flow of political ideology in her provincial town she stubbornly and at all costs centers her life on her private icon Voinovich's humanely comic vision has never been sharper than it is in this hilarious but deeply moving tale equally all seeing about Stalinism the era of Khrushchev and glasnost in the final years of Soviet rule The New York Times Book Review called his classic work The Life Extraordinary Adventures of Private Ivan Chonkin a masterpiece of a new form socialist surrealism the Soviet Catch 22 written by a latter day Gogol In Monumental Propaganda we have the welcome return of a truly singular voice in world literature

Monumental Propaganda Vitaly Komar, Aleksandr Melamid, 1994 Discusses what is to be done with Russia's Socialist Realist monuments now that the U S S R is no more Proposes a transformation of these monuments through art into history lessons Art of the Soviets Matthew Cullerne Bown, Brandon Taylor, 1993 This work considers aspects of the art and architecture of the Soviet Union during the turbulent period of 1917 to 1922 covering a broad range of art some modernist some anti modernist but all to some degree guided by and sometimes coerced by the apparatus of the over arching state

Art in the Service of Politics Catherine Kudriavtseva, 2000 Place Meaning and Attachment Dak Kopec, AnnaMarie Bliss, 2020-03-10 Revolutions have gripped many countries leading to the destruction of buildings places and artifacts climate change is threatening the ancestral homes of many the increasingly uneven distribution of resources has made the poor vulnerable to the coercive efforts by the rich and social uncertainty has led to the romanticizing of the past Humanity is resilient but we have a fundamental need for attachment to places buildings and objects This edited volume will explore the different meanings and forms of place attachment and meaning based on our histories and conceptualization of material artifacts Each chapter examines a varied relationship between a given society and the meaning formed through myth symbols and ideologies manifested through diverse forms of material artifacts Topics of consideration examine place attachment at many scales including at the level of the artifact human being building urban context and region We need a better understanding of human relationships to the past our attachments to the events and places and to the external influences on our attachments This understanding will allow for better preservation methods pertaining to important places and buildings and enhanced social wellbeing for all groups of people Covering a broad range of international perspectives on place meaning from the United States to Europe Asia to Russia and Africa to Australia this book is an essential read for students academics and professionals alike "Memory, Masculinity and National Identity in British Visual Culture, 1914-1930" Gabriel Koureas, 2017-07-05 With its specific focus on British representations of masculinity in relation to the trauma of the First World War and notions of national identity class and sexuality this book provides a much needed addition to the historiography of visual culture during the period The study interrogates the complications arising out of issues of trauma cultural expressions of sexuality and affect as well as the ways in which these are encoded in diverse forms in visual culture and commemorative objects Concentrating on masculinity and cultural memory it investigates the ways in which these and the web of power relations that they entail worked during the interwar years in order to reconstruct the post First World War British society In the course of the narrative the author looks at Bolshevism and the Returning Ex Servicemen the 1919 NUR Strike the Central Labour College in conjunction with banners and revolution as well as the Imperial War Graves the Cenotaph the London and North Western Railway memorial the Machine Gun Corps Memorial and the establishment of the Imperial War Museum He also excavates new archival material particularly case studies of shell shock sufferers and film footage of male hysteria Official History in Eastern Europe Amacher, Korine, Portnov, Andrii, Serhiienko, Viktoriia, 2021-01-01 Unter Official History wird eine staatlich geforderte und ideologisch motivierte Auslegung der Vergangenheit verstanden die politischen Zielen meist nicht demokratischer Regime dient Der optimistische Glaube dies werde mit dem Zerfall der Sowjetunion ein Ende nehmen stellte sich als naiv heraus Pierre Nora behauptete dass in den letzten 30 Jahren eine allgemeine Politisierung von Geschichte die Ideologisierung der Arbeit von HistorikerInnen beobachtet werden konnte Wie wird die Arbeit von HistorikerInnen heute von den langjährigen Erfahrungen des 20. Jahrhunderts in Osteuropa beeinflusst Was könnte eine offizielle Geschichte für staatenlose Nationen oder selbsternannte Republiken bedeuten Wie wurde die ukrainische Geschichtswissenschaft sowjetisch oder ihr die Sowjetisierung auferzungen Welche Räume für individuelle Forschungsinitiativen oder sogar minimalsten Dissens mit den vorgeschriebenen Forschungsplänen wurden in den offiziellen Geschichtsinstitutionen der Sowjetunion und des sozialistischen Polens geboten Wie wurden russische Geschichtsbücher in der postsowjetischen Zeit umgeschrieben Welche Rolle spielen Literatur Film Denkmäler Tourismus oder Rituale in der Geschichtspolitik Wie wurde das Gedächtnis an den Zweiten Weltkrieg im gegenwärtigen russisch-ukrainischen Konflikt instrumentalisiert und wie beeinflussen die Bilder des Krieges im Donbas die geschichtspolitischen Debatten in benachbarten postsowjetischen Staaten Diesen Fragen wird in den interdisziplinären Beiträgen dieses Bandes von ForscherInnen aus Österreich Frankreich Deutschland Großbritannien Litauen Polen der Schweiz und der Ukraine nachgegangen Der Großteil der Artikel entstand im Rahmen des Forschungsprojektes Divided Memories Shared Memories Ukraine Russia Poland 20th-21st centuries An Entangled History gefördert durch den Schweizerischen Nationalfonds zur Förderung der wissenschaftlichen Forschung an der Universität Genf und wurde erstmals im Juni 2018 auf der Konferenz Official History in Eastern Europe Transregional Perspectives am Deutschen Historischen Institut in Warschau pr sentiert Official history is generally understood as state sponsored and ideologically inclined construction of the past which serves certain political aims of mostly non democratic regimes The optimistic believes that it will end up with the collapse of the Soviet Union proved to be rather naive As Pierre Nora argued over the last thirty years we have experienced a general politicization of history the process of transforming what historians produce into an ideology How are the intellectual choices made by historians today influenced by the long twentieth century experiences of Eastern Europe What could official history mean for a stateless nation or a self proclaimed republic How did Ukrainian historiography become or how was it forced to become Soviet What spaces for individual research initiatives or even for modest disagreement with obligatory planned research existed in the official history institutions of Soviet Ukraine and socialist Poland How were Russian textbooks on history re written during the post Soviet years What role do literature film monuments holidays or rituals play in the politics of history How have memories of the Second World War been instrumentalised in the ongoing Russian Ukrainian conflict and how have images of the ongoing war in the Donbas influenced memory debates in neighbouring post Soviet states All those questions are reflected in the interdisciplinary contributions to the volume by scholars from Austria France Germany Great Britain Lithuania Poland Switzerland and Ukraine The majority of research papers were developed within the research project Divided Memories Shared Memories Ukraine Russia Poland 20th 21st centuries An Entangled History supported by the Swiss National Science Foundation at the University of Geneva and were first presented at the conference Official History in Eastern Europe Transregional Perspectives at the German Historical Institute Warsaw in June 2018

The Daily Review ,1966 Public Statues Across Time and Cultures Christopher P. Dickenson,2021-04-07 This book explores the ways in which statues have been experienced in public in different cultures and the role that has been played by statues in defining publicness itself The meaning of public statues is examined through discussion of their appearance and their spatial context and of written discourses having to do with how they were experienced Bringing together experts working on statues in different cultures the book sheds light on similarities and differences in the role that public statues had in different times and places throughout history The book will also provide insight into the diverse methods and approaches that scholars working on these different periods use to investigate statues The book will appeal to historians art historians and archaeologists of all periods who have an interest in the display of sculpture the reception of public art or the significance of public monuments
