Burroughs,2020-11-14 I had intended telling you my story of the days of the twenty second century but it seems best if you are to understand it to tell first the story of my great great grandfather I must have looked up at him quizzically for he smiled and shook his head as one who is puzzled to find an explanation suited to the mental capacity of his auditor My great great grandfather was in reality the great great grandson of my previous incarnation which commenced I married at the age of twenty My son Julian was born I never saw him I was killed in Franc on Armistice Day I was again reincarnated in my son s son I am thirty years of age My son was born that is the son of my incarnation and his son Julian 5th in whom I again returned to Earth I see you are confused but please remember my injunction that you are to try to keep in mind the theory that there is no such thing as Time It is now yet I recall distinctly every event of my life that occurred in four incarnations the last that I recall being that which had its origin Whether I actually skipped three generations that time or through some caprice of Fate I am merely unable to visualize an intervening incarnation I do not know My theory of the matter is that I differ only from my fellows in that I can recall the events of many incarnations while they can recall none of theirs other than a few important episodes of that particular one they are experiencing but perhaps I am wrong It is of no importance I will tell you the story of Julian 5th who was born and then if we have time and you yet are interested I will tell you of the torments during the harrowing days of the twenty second century following the birth of Julian 9th    The Moon Maid Edgar Rice Burroughs,2019-10-02 In the late twentieth century Admiral Julian 3rd can get no rest for he knows his future He will be reborn as his grandson in the next century to journey through space and make an ominous discovery inside the moon he will live again in the dark years of the twenty second century as Julian 9th who refuses to bow down to the victorious Moon Men
