The Metaphysics and Ethics of Relativism Carol Rovane, 2013-12-16 Some philosophers regard relativism as neither true nor false but simply incoherent Carol Rovane demonstrates that the way to defend relativism is not by establishing its truth but by clarifying its content Some forms of interpersonal engagement are true in themselves but closed off to belief from those who hold irreducibly incompatible truths

Sharing Territories Cara Nine, 2022-03-24 In Sharing Territories Cara Nine defends a river model of territorial rights On a river model groups are assumed to be interdependent and overlapping If we imagine human settlements and territorial rights as established in river catchment areas not on lands with walls and borders the primary features of group life are not independence and distinctness Drawing on natural law philosophy Nine's theory argues for the establishment of foundational territories around geographical areas like rivers Usually lower scale political entities foundational territories overlap with and serve as the grounding blocks of larger territorial units Examples of foundational territories include not only river catchment areas but also urban areas drawn around individuals who hold obligations to collectively manage their surroundings Foundational territorial authorities manage spatially integrated areas where agents are interconnected by dense and scaffolded physical circumstances In these areas individuals cannot fulfil their natural obligations to each other without the help of collective rules As foundational territories overlap the territories of other political units Nine frames a theory of nested and shared territorial rights and argues for insightful changes to the allocation of resource rights between political groups and individuals

The Emotive Theory of Ethics J. O. Urmson, 2020-07-20 Originally published in 1968 this book traces the development of the emotive theory of ethics from its outline by Ogden and Richards in The Meaning of Meaning to the elaborate presentation by Stevenson in Ethics and Language Attention is paid to the positive features of the ethical theory whilst the author also shows how a more adequate view can be reached through critical reflection on it

Morality in Context Wolfgang Edelstein, Gertrud Nunner-Winkler, 2005-07-25 Morality in context is a timely topic A debate between philosophers and social scientists is a good way to approach it Why is there such a booming interest in morality and why does it focus on context One starting point is the change in the sociostructural and sociocultural conditions of modern societies This involves change in the empirical conditions of moral action and in the social demand on morality As these changes are accounted for and analyzed in the social sciences new perspectives emerge that give rise to new ways of framing issues and problems These problems are best addressed by way of cooperation between philosophers and social scientists As Habermas

1990 has pointed out in a much cited paper philosophers depend on social science to fill in the data they require to answer the questions raised by philosophy in its placeholder function The reverse also holds true Social science needs the conceptual clarifications that philosophy can provide With respect to morality such mutual interchanges are of particular importance the contributions to this book show convincingly

On Feminist Ethics and Politics Claudia Card, 1999 For years mainstream feminist ethics focused criticism on male supremacy Feminist philosophers in this volume adopt a less male focused stance to look closely at oppression s impact on women s agency and on women s relations with women Examining legal social and physical relationships these philosophers confront moral ambiguity moral compromise and complicity in perpetuating oppression Combining personal experience with philosophical inquiry they vividly portray their daily engagement with oppression as both victims and perpetrators They explore such issues as how pornography silences women and radical feminist politics complicity in racism Among these insightful essays Sandra Bartky argues that women share guilt for racism when they benefit from it without protest Susan Brison reflects on uses of narrative in trauma recovery from such experiences as being targeted for rape or murder Joan Callahan examines fallout of derogatory speech directed at lesbians Virginia Held proposes carrying care into marketplaces and governments and in her introduction Claudia Card draws on Primo Levi s conception of gray zones in exploring dangers of character damage to victims of misogyny A fitting companion to Card s highly regarded Feminist Ethics this volume interweaves observations on character political ethics violence and love into an accessible sourcebook for students It tackles some of feminism s most pressing issues and helps readers to identify and then overcome the real damage caused by oppression
