Over the Plum Pudding John Bangs,2014-09-06 I have been asked so often and by so many persons known and unknown to me why it was that a Christmas book that was to have been issued some years ago under my editorial supervision never appeared although announced as ready for immediate publication that I feel that I should make some statement in explanation of the seeming deception The matter was very annoying both to my publishers and to myself at the time it happened and while I was anxious then to make public a full and candid statement of the facts as they occurred Messrs Hawkins Wilkes Speedway deemed it the wiser course to let the affair rest for a year or two anyhow They failed to see my point of view that while they were responsible for the advertisement I was assumed to be responsible for the book and in the event of its failure to appear it would naturally be inferred by the public that my work had not proven sufficiently up to standard to warrant them in continuing the venture I did not press the matter however being too busy on other affairs to give to it the attention it deserved and until now no opportunity to explain my connection with the unfortunate volume has arisen

On the eve of his departure for Manila where he is shortly to begin the publication of a comic paper my friend Mr Horace Wilkinson late literary adviser of Messrs Hawkins Wilkes Speedway the publishers sent to me the following pages of manuscript with the request that I should have them published for the benefit of those whom the story may concern I have cheerfully accepted the commission desiring it to be distinctly understood however that I am in no sense responsible for Mr Wilkinson s statements either of fact or of opinion I am merely the medium through whom his explanation is brought to the public eye
