Where Do We Live Christopher Shinn, 2005 THE STORY In the summer of 2001 in New York City two young men from the same apartment building find their lives intersecting as each struggles to make sense of a changing world The Smart Set, 1904

Me and My Dad ROBERT RUSSELL MARQUARDT, 2006-03-14 Every Boy Needs a Dad The author has stepped into his own past to reflect upon how a youthful mind begins wondering about life Who can a son turn to Dad who is put on the spot and finds his authority challenged by thoughts and expressions of his son s closest friend and his father and he has to grapple with conflict when their influence clashes with Dad s perceptions and views The young boy s observations are imbedded into his subconscious and begins to form him as a unique person Award winning poet Robert Russell Marquardt takes another provocative step into your world in this delightful and amusing dialogue between a father and his young son complimenting his other newly released book it s me Rodney a bold attempt at overhearing daily conversations between a brash but genuine young man and God You will enjoy these digressions from the author s poetic form in his previously published works from Authorhouse Flood Control United States. Congress. House. Committee on Flood Control, 1927

Do We Live and Other Plays Christopher Shinn, 2005-07-01 This anthology marks the emergence of one of the finest and most innovative new artists writing for the theater today The secret of Shinn s success is in the way he exploits the dramatic gap between what is said and that which is left unsaid writing like this is rare said the London Independent Where Do We Live the title play was written shortly after 9 11 and though never referenced it still haunts this chronicle of the struggles of several aspiring and gifted young New Yorkers on the Lower East Side Like all his work it is a deeply affecting story of how we define our lives and our place in the world The Coming World Shinn certainly looks like a shining prospect for the future Daily Telegraph Four Nothing is simple emotionally The play keeps delivering small shocks and aches that end in a standoff or maybe in that pause between despair resignation and a twinge of hope Haunting Margo Jefferson The New York Times Other People Shinn writes with graceful compassion about people trapped inside their own skins unable to make sense of their lives The Guardian What Didn t Happen is about the distance between people and the ways in which even friends spouses and lovers are ultimately unknowable to one another a playwright to cherish The New York Times Christopher Shinn s plays have been produced at Playwrights Horizons Manhattan Theatre Club the Vineyard Theatre in New York and often at London s Royal Court Theatre Where Do We Live received a 2003 Olivier Award nomination for most promising playwright His next play On the Mountain premieres in New York City early in 2005 *Flood Control: The Mississippi River and its tributaries.
