Meanjin Volume 57 2:

Comic Commentators Haydon R. Manning, 2008 Essays on contemporary political cartooning in Australia Provided by publisher Stolen Motherhood Anne Maree Payne, 2021-05-25 The removal of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children from their families gained national attention in Australia following the Bringing Them Home Report in 1997 However the voices of Indigenous parents were largely missing from the Report The Inquiry attributed their lack of testimony to the impact of trauma and the silencing impact of parents overwhelming sense of guilt and despair a submission by Link Up NSW commented on Aboriginal mothers being unwilling and unable to speak about the immense pain grief and anguish that losing their children had caused them This book explores what happened to Aboriginal mothers who had children removed and why they have overwhelmingly remained silent about their experiences Identifying the structural barriers to Aboriginal mothering in the Stolen Generations era the author examines how contemporary laws policies and practices increased the likelihood of Aboriginal child removal and argues that negative perceptions of Aboriginal mothering underpinned removal processes with tragic consequences This book makes an important contribution to understanding the history of the Stolen Generations and highlights the importance of designing inclusive truth telling processes that enable a diversity of perspectives to be shared Social Patterns in Australian Literature Tom Inglis Moore, 1971 Testimony, Witness, Authority Tom Clark, Sasha Henriss-Anderssen, Tara Mokhtari, 2014-07-24 What does it mean to listen faithfully to how stories are told through a web of verbal and near verbal media How do dynamics of testimony witness and authority work to determine the politics and poetics of human experience This collection of essays addresses fundamental problems that confront creative practitioners researchers educators and graduate and undergraduate students working on questions about expressive communication across the Humanities Creative Arts and Social Sciences It is an international interdisciplinary examination of the interaction between verbal and near verbal media their uses and their users The leading theme of this volume is an interrogation of texts both oral and written that bear witness to experience and which are determined by permutations of subjective consciousness the dynamics of transmission cultural knowledge systems and codes aboriginality and the limits of verbalisation The contributing authors are international scholars and artists in the fields of literature education creative writing linguistics film and documentary performance studies sporting culture politics and poetics All offer erudite insights on various formal and informal articulations of experience their applications and their broader significance The Old Country George Seddon, 2005-10-04 We are a nation of gardeners and we take pleasure in tending our backyards But this pleasure sits uneasily with our knowledge that the places where most of us live are running out of water We suspect that our lawns and many of our plants from the damp climates of northern European gardens are too demanding of scarce supplies but can't imagine our streets and gardens without them The Old Country opens our eyes and minds to other possibilities It does so by telling us stories about our natural landscape George Seddon believes that the better we understand the delicacy and beauty of our natural environment the more at home we will feel as Australians This passionate wise and witty book enriched with breathtakingly beautiful illustrations suggests that the answers to our water problems lie here at home

History Wars Doug Munro, 2021-10-21 In 1993 Manning Clark came under severe posthumous attack in the pages of Quadrant by none other than Peter Ryan who had published five of the six volumes of Clark's epic A History of Australia In applying what he called an overdue axe to a tall poppy Ryan lambasted the History as an imposition on Australian credulity and declared its author a fraud both as a historian and a person This unprecedented public assault by a publisher on his best selling author was a sensation at the time and remains lodged in the public memory In History Wars Doug Munro forensically examines the right and wrongs of Ryan's allegations concluding that Clark was more sinned against than sinning and that Ryan repeatedly misrepresented the situation More than just telling a story Munro places the Ryan Clark controversy within the context of Australia's History Wars This book is an illuminating saga of that ongoing contest James Curran University of Sydney The Ryan Clark controversy speaks to the place of Manning Clark in Australia's national imagination Had Ryan taken his axe to another historian it's unlikely that we would be still talking about it 30 years later But Clark was the author and keeper of Australia's national story however imperfect his scholarship and however blinkered that story Few if any historians in the Anglo American world have occupied the space that Clark occupied by dint of will force of personality and felicity of pen Donald Wright University of New Brunswick

Les Murray Steven Matthews, 2001 In the only full critical study of Les Murray's work Steven Matthews provides a complete account of the poet's career to date A controversial figure Murray's version of Australian republicanism has caused heated argument about the future direction of his country as it moves away from its colonial past With detailed readings of major poems and literary and cultural contexts surrounding the work Matthews gives an overview of Murray's place in Australian literature and national thought

Being Australian Catriona Elder, 2020-07-24 After a century of speculation by writers filmmakers travelers and scholars being Australian has become a recognisable shorthand for a group of national characteristics Now in an era of international terrorism being seen as un-Australian has become a potent rhetorical weapon for some and a badge of honour for others Catriona Elder explores the origins meaning and effects of the many stories we tell about ourselves and how they have changed over time She outlines some of the traditional stories and their role in Australian nationalism and she shows how concepts of egalitarianism peaceful settlement and sporting prowess have been used to create a national identity Elder also investigates the cultural and social perspectives that have been used to critique dominant accounts of Australian identity including ideas of class gender sexuality ethnicity and race She shows how these critiques have been in turn queried in recent years Being Australian is an ideal introduction to studying Australia for anyone interested in understanding Australian society culture and history A clever work incisive and original At a time when Australian identities have never been more debated Elder finds an open way through the closed doors which often restrict cultural representations of Australian ness Professor Adam Shoemaker Dean of Arts ANU This is a timely and significant new analysis essential reading on issues of identity and our own anxieties about national belonging and what it means to be Australian in a globalising world Kate Darian Smith Professor of Australian Studies and History University of Melbourne    Meanjin ,1958    AQ ,1999    Traditional Dwellings and Settlements Review ,2001    Against the Grain Stuart Macintyre,Sheila Fitzpatrick,2007 While Brian Fitzpatrick has today fallen into relative obscurity efforts persist in discrediting Manning Clark s name Against the Grain examines the dual careers of Fitzpatrick and Clark as activists and historians during the Cold War and shows the political and personal difficulties that beset both men throughout their careers Contributors Stuart Macintyre James Waghorne Ann Curthoys Mark McKenna Roger Douglas Sheila Fitzpatrick Mark Finnane John Myrtle Carolyn Rasmussen Jill Roe and others critically observe the men s legacy and the value of their work to future generations The collection also includes memoirs of Fitzpatrick and Clark by their daughters Sheila and Katerina and Beverley Kingston and Nicholas Brown    Citizens Eric C.
