Journalism & Mass Communication Directory ,2004 Ebenezer Soola Conference on Communication ,2007

American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Dimensions of Advertising Theory and Practice in Africa Rotimi Williams

Olatunji,2013-09-30 his book brings together cutting edge research by leading African communication and media theorists to provide a broad but detailed survey of the history and present state of the art of advertising in Africa The book is a thought provoking reminder of the variety of approaches to the study of marketing communication on a continent where advertising is often taken for granted From indigenous African forms of advertising by street criers wall paintings and even olfactory appeals to the latest experiments in integrated marketing communication via the Internet home videos smartphones and social media Dimensions of Advertising Theory and Practice in Africa is a comprehensive survey both of Africa s contributions to the globalized advertising industry and of the industry s profound affect on African economies and cultures The first collection of its kind the book marks an important moment in the study of marketing communication in Africa It will be an essential text for years to come 2005 Media Studies: Media history, media and society Pieter Jacobus

Fourie,2007 While examining exactly who owns the media and who produces the media this text manages to encompass the systematic critical and analytical media in all its forms and concludes that the media is one of the most important generators and disseminators of meaning in contemporary society Investigating the power relationships between the media and politics culture economy society and above all democracy this resource is well suited for anyone with an interest in the modern role of media in society Library & Information Science Abstracts ,2006 The New Walford Ray Lester,2005 Covers 15 broad subject groupings social sciences generic psychology sociology social work politics government law finance accountancy industries business education sport media information and tools for information professionals 2006 Maiduguri Journal of Arts and Social Sciences ,2007 Reading Media Theory Brett Mills,David M.

Barlow,2014-06-11 What does the Frankfurt School have to say about the creative industries Does the spread of Google prove we now live in an information society How is Madonna an example of postmodernism How new is new media Does the power of Facebook mean we re all media makers now This groundbreaking volume part reader part textbook helps you to engage thoroughly with some of the major voices that have come to define the landscape of theory in media studies from the public sphere to postmodernism from mass communication theory to media effects from production to reception and beyond But much more than this by providing assistance and questions directly alongside the readings it crucially helps you develop the skills necessary to become a critical informed and analytical reader Each reading is supported on the facing page by author annotations which provide comments dissect the arguments explain key ideas and terminology make references to other relevant material and pose questions that emerge from the text Key features Opening chapters What is theory and What is reading bring alive the importance of both as key parts of media scholarship Pre reading substantial Introductory sections set each text and its author in context and show the relevance of the reading to contemporary culture Post reading Reflection sections summarise each reading s key points and suggests further areas to explore and think about 4 types of annotations help you engage with the reading context content structure and writing style as well as questions to provoke further thought Split into 4 sections Reading theory Key thinkers and schools Approaches and Media Theory in context New to the second edition New chapters on New Media and Audiences as Producers Reading Media Theory will assist you in developing close reading and analytic skills It will also increase your ability to outline key theories and debates assess different case studies critically link theoretical approaches to a particular historical context and to structure and present an argument As such it will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies cultural studies communication studies the sociology of the media popular culture and other related subjects

Cascio,2005-05 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2004 Media Asia ,2007 Media Today Joseph Turow,2011-09-22 Media Todayputs students at the center of the profound changes in the twenty first century media world from digital convergence to media ownership and gives them the skills to think critically about what these changes mean for the role of media in their lives Media Today Fourth Edition is built around four key concepts A media systems approach allows students to understand the interconnected cultural political and economic forces that shape media they encounter every day Unique insights into media trendsgive students an insider s perspective on how media industries are responding to changes from globalization to social networking Focus on digital convergence shows in each chapter how digital media is transforming traditional mass media such as newspapers magazines and television A media literacy goalencourages and builds critical skills to make students more informed and engaged citizens in our media driven society Completely revised with updated examples new case studies and new online video resources the 4th edition of Media Today connects the latest trends debates and technologies to the history of media highlighting the impact and meaning of today s changes to the media landscape especially how traditional industries have blurred together with digital convergence Additional learning resources including a new set of online video resources interactive quizzes study resources and instructor guides are available on the free companion website at www.routledge.com/textbooks/mediatoday4e

Communication in the Age of Suspicion

Vian Bakir,David M. Barlow,2007-04-12 Communication in the Age of Suspicion explores and interrogates the relationship between media and trust It begins by examining the decline of trust in key institutions and the relationship between Trust Studies and Media Studies Fourteen international contributions follow focusing on a variety of genres and examining a number of media forms Can we speak of The End of Trust The book concludes by delineating three emergent themes before outlining implications for media communication and future directions for research in this Age of Suspicion
