Migrant Contributions to Global Frontline Sectors explores the lived realities structural dynamics and contributions of migrant workers employed in essential frontline sectors It examines the tension between the indispensability of migrant labor and the invisibility of migrant workers in policy discourse labor protections and societal recognition This book covers topics such as global business digital technology and transnational development and is a useful resource for policymakers business owners academicians researchers and scientists

Media and Social Representations of Otherness Terri Mannarini, Giuseppe A. Veltri, Sergio Salvatore,2020-01-03 This book presents the main findings of an empirical exploration of media discourses on social representations of otherness in seven European countries It focuses on the analysis of press discourses produced over a fifteen year period 2000 2015 on three contemporary figures of otherness that challenge the identity of European societies question the attitudes towards diversity and pose significant challenges for policy makers immigration Islam and LGBT The book provides a comprehensive and articulate map of how national media addresses such themes from both synchronic and diachronic perspectives revealing patterns of continuity and discontinuity across time and space Lastly it discusses these patterns in the light of their cultural meanings and their influence on social and political collective behaviours Africa and Fortress Europe Belachew Gebrewold,2016-03-16 The number of African migrants attempting to enter Europe has increased Within Europe North African migrants are being accused of increased involvement in Islamic fundamentalism and terrorist activities after attacks on Madrid and London Such terrorist attacks have become an urgent security concern for the European Union forcing the EU to make migration a security policy This volume examines the extent to which the EU is threatened by patterns of African crisis alongside Africa s peace security and development initiatives The contributors analyze current migration flows from Africa to Europe and the challenges and prospects of a comprehensive EU strategy for Africa Intended for undergraduates graduates and lecturers the volume is ideal for courses that discuss the impact of African political developments on international politics Intelligence in an Insecure World

Peter Gill,Mark Phythian,2013-08-27 Over a decade on from the terrorist attacks of 9 11 intelligence continues to be of central importance to the contemporary world Today there is a growing awareness of the importance of intelligence and an increasing investment in it as individuals groups organizations and states all seek timely and actionable information in order to increase their sense of security But what exactly is intelligence Who seeks to develop it and how What happens to intelligence once it is produced and what dilemmas does this generate How can liberal democracies seek to mitigate problems of intelligence and what do we mean by intelligence failure In a fully revised and expanded new edition of their classic guide to the field Peter Gill and Mark Phythian explore these and other questions Together they set out a comprehensive framework for the study of intelligence discussing how intelligence can best be understood how it is collected analysed disseminated and acted upon how it raises ethical problems and how and why it fails Drawing on a range of contemporary examples Intelligence in an Insecure World is an authoritative and accessible guide to a rapidly expanding area of enquiry one which everyone has an interest in understanding Sociology of Diaspora Ajaya Kumar Sahoo,Brij Maharaj,2007 Although there have been some discussions about diaspora in the past this has been more pronounced in the intellectual and public domain during the last decade of the 20th century Why has diaspora attracted such scholarly interest only recently Who are the protagonists who have made important contributions to the field This comprehensive collection of essays provides some answers by focusing on themes such as immigration transnationalism ethnicity identity religion politics citizenship gender sexuality and hybridity which comprise the domain of diaspora studies This book will be useful not only to sociologists but also to scholars working in the fields of social anthropology political science geography history philosophy literary cultural and ethnic studies The Politics of Recognizing Difference R. D. Grillo,Jeff C. Pratt,2002 Despite the fact that this book was written before the 2001 Italian general elections the basic issues regarding multiculturalism and immigration policy undoubtedly remain of how Italians and immigrants view each other and how the Italian form of pluralism differs for example from Scandinavia s Convinced that social scientists can contribute to the sociopolitical agenda regarding difference Grillo and Pratt anthropology U of Sussex UK introduce 14 papers by European scholars offering case studies of topics including racism under Italian fascism immigrant participation in leftist politics official alternative and media presentations of immigrants local policies regarding female domestics and Italian and Senegalese Muslim perceptions of each other Includes a politico institutional map of Bologna Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Environment & Planning ,2004 Ethnic Minorities, Electronic Media and the Public Sphere Donald R. Browne,2005 Presentation of the structures and factors themselves draws upon the author s direct observation of such services in over 20 nations interviews of service staff and regulatory agency personnel and various research reports and other literature concerning such services The author speculates on the extent to which such services promote participation in the public sphere whether the services have negative as well as positive effects and what the future may hold for ethnic minority electronic media in an increasingly media rich multicultural world This book will appeal to college and university instructors researchers and students anyone active in the management financing and regulation of ethnic minority electronic media and those curious to know how ethnic minorities address themselves as well as the broader public through radio TV audio video cassettes and the internet BOOK JACKET Sex at the Margins Laura María Agustín,2007-05-01 This groundbreaking book explodes several myths that selling sex is completely different from any other kind of work that migrants who sell sex are passive victims and that the multitude of people out to save them are without self interest Laura Agustín makes a passionate case against these stereotypes arguing that the label trafficked does not accurately describe migrants lives and that the rescue industry disempowers them Based on extensive research amongst migrants who sell sex and social helpers Sex at the Margins provides a radically different analysis Frequently says Agustín migrants make rational choices to travel and work in the sex industry Although they are treated like a marginalised group they form part of the dynamic global economy Both powerful and controversial this book is essential reading for all those who want to understand the increasingly important relationship between sex markets migration and the desire for social justice Panjab

University Research Journal ,2007 Ufahamu ,2008 Projecting Migration Alan Grossman,Áine O'Brien,2007 Migration has rapidly become a fundamental component of modern life and increasingly determines who we are and how we define ourselves today Projecting Migration is a groundbreaking multimedia book DVD ROM project that attempts to understand the phenomena of mobility and displacement through essays films photography and audio recordings Contributors have been on the ground in locations as diverse as the US Mexico border southern Africa Lebanon and Ireland and each chapter is linked with DVD chapters of original footage resulting in a dynamic account of migrant narratives which circumvent the distorting lens of news journalism This cross media collection created in collaboration with the Centre for Transcultural Research and Media Practice at the Dublin Institute of Technology marks a major transdisciplinary contribution to contemporary debates on migration Publisher s website Migrant Media Kira Kosnick,2007 In this innovative and thought provoking study Kira Kosnick explores the landscape of Turkish language broadcasting in Berlin From

24 hour radio broadcasting in Turkish to programming on Germany's national public broadcasting and local public access channels Germany's largest immigrant minority has made its presence felt in German media Satellite dishes have appeared in migrant neighborhoods all over the city giving viewers access to Kurdish channels and broadcasts from Turkey Kosnick draws on interviews with producers her own participation in production work and analysis of programs to elaborate a new approach to migrant media in relation to the larger cultural and political spaces through which immigrant life is imagined and created

Images of West Indian Immigrants in Mass Media Christine M. Du Bois, 2004 Du Bois explores mass media's unflattering images of black Caribbean immigrants Drawing on the extended case study in the Chesapeake region she highlights media ethics in relation to minorities Analyses of journalism advertisements TV and film reveal ways these immigrants were unfairly depicted during the 1980s and 1990s and how relationships among law enforcers journalists criminals and Hollywood writers shaped media representations Du Bois also details the West Indians response She places their concerns in the context of an America where dark skinned immigrants can be subjected to racism and xenophobia particularly when members of their community commit crimes Her findings are relevant to the current struggle to balance journalism about terrorists with a desire to treat all Americans fairly

North/south, East/west Michela Ardizzone, 2007 North South East West focuses on the visual and discursive representation of identity promoted by public and private Italian national television at the turn of the twenty first century Michela Ardizzone examines the role of politics conglomeration immigration and satellite technology in framing discourses of gender ethnic and regional identities In a time of social and political change for Italy characterized by the increased visibility of ethnic minorities and the rise to political power of Silvio Berlusconi Italy's largest media mogul North South East West provides an in depth textual analysis of current programs and their vision of identity
