Pain Death And The Law:

Pain, Death, and the Law Austin Sarat, 2009-09-11 This collection of essays examines the relationship between pain death and the law and addresses the question of how the law constructs pain and death as jurisprudential facts The empirical focus of these essays enables the reader to delve into both the history and the theoretical complexities of the pain death law relationship The combination of the theoretical and the empirical broadens the contribution this volume will undoubtedly make to debates in which the right to live or die is the core issue at hand This volume will be an important read for policy makers and legal practitioners and a valuable text for courses in law the social sciences and the humanities Austin Sarat is William Nelson Cromwell Professor of Jurisprudence and Political Science Amherst College In the Moment of Greatest Calamity Susan F. Hirsch, 2021-06-08 On August 7 1998 bombs exploded at two United States embassies in East Africa American anthropologist Susan Hirsch and her husband Jamal a Kenyan were among the thousands of victims and Jamal died From there Hirsch went on to face devastating grief with the help of friends and families on two continents observing the mourning rituals of her husband's community to honor him When the alleged bombers were captured and sent to New York to stand trial she witnessed firsthand the attempts of America's criminal justice system to handle terrorism through the law In the Moment of Greatest Calamity is her story a tale told on many levels personal anthropological legal and finally political The book's central chapters describe Hirsch's experience of the bombing trials in a Manhattan federal court in 2001 including a behind the scenes look at the investigation leading up to the trial encounters with some of the FBI's leading terrorism investigators and many moments of drama from the proceedings themselves Hirsch reveals the inner conflict that results from her opposition to the death penalty and concludes that the trial was both flawed and indispensable Hirsch's story of this tragedy and its legal aftermath comes to life through and is enhanced by her skills as a social scientist Her unique viewpoint makes it unlike any other story about terrorism Knowing the Suffering of Others Austin Sarat, 2014-07-14 In Knowing the Suffering of Others legal scholar Austin Sarat brings together essays that address suffering as it relates to the law highlighting the ways law imagines suffering and how pain and suffering become jurisprudential facts From fetal imaging to end of life decisions torts to international human rights domestic violence to torture and the law of war to victim impact statements the law is awash in epistemological and ethical problems associated with knowing and imagining suffering In each of these domains we might ask How well do legal actors perceive and understand suffering in such varied domains of legal life What problems of representation and interpretation bedevil efforts to grasp the suffering of others What historical political literary cultural and or theological resources can legal actors and citizens draw on to understand the suffering of others In Knowing the Suffering of Others Austin Sarat presents legal scholarship that explores these questions and puts the problem of suffering at the center of thinking about law The contributors to this volume do not regard pain and suffering as objective facts of a universe remote from law rather they examine how both are discursively constructed in and by law They examine how pain and suffering help construct and give meaning to the law as we know it The authors attend to the various ways suffering appears in law as well as the different forms of suffering that require the law's attention Throughout this book law is regarded as a domain in which the meanings of pain and suffering are contested and constituted as well as an instrument for inflicting suffering or for providing or refusing its relief It challenges scholars lawyers students and policymakers to ask how various legal actors and audiences understand the suffering of others Contributors Montr D Carodine Cathy Caruth Alan L Durham Bryan K Fair Steven H Hobbs Gregory C Keating Linda Ross Meyer Meredith M Render Jeannie Suk John Fabian Witt      Treatment of Chronic Pain by Integrative Approaches Timothy R.
