Janice Katz, Mami Hatayama

Painting The World:

Painting the Floating World Janice Katz, Mami Hatayama, 2019-01-08 From the 17th through the 19th century artists in Kyoto and Edo now Tokyo captured the metropolitan amusements of the floating world ukiyo in Japanese through depictions of subjects such as the beautiful women of the Yoshiwara pleasure quarters and performers of the kabuki theater. In contrast to ukiyo e prints by artists such as Katsushika Hokusai which were widely circulated ukiyo e paintings were specially commissioned unique objects that displayed the maker's technical skill and individual artistic sensibility. Featuring more than 150 works from the celebrated Weston Collection the most comprehensive of its kind in private hands and published here for the first time in English this lavishly illustrated and meticulously researched volume addresses the genre of ukiyo e painting in all its complexity. Individual essays explore topics such as shunga erotica mitate e images that parody or transform a well known story or legend and poetic inscriptions revealing the crucial role that ukiyo e painting played in a sophisticated urban culture.

Printing and Painting the News in Victorian London Andrea Korda, 2017-07-05 Printing and Painting the News in Victorian London offers a fresh perspective on Social Realism by contextualizing it within the burgeoning new media environment of Victorian London. Paintings labelled as Social Realist by Luke Fildes, Frank Holl and Hubert Herkomer are frequently considered to typify the sentimental Victorian genre painting that quickly became outdated with the development of modernism. Yet this book argues that the paintings must be considered as the result of the new experiences of modernity the urban poverty that the paintings represent and most importantly the advent of the mass produced illustrated news. Fildes, Holl and Herkomer worked for The Graphic a publication launched in 1869 as a rival to the dominant Illustrated London News. The artists' illustrations which featured the growing problem of urban poverty became the basis for large scale paintings that provoked controversy among their contemporaries and later became known as Social Realism. This first in depth study of The Graphic and Social Realism uses the approach of media archaeology to unearth the modernity of these works showing that they engaged with the changing notions of objectivity and immediacy that nineteenth century new media cultivated. In doing so this book proposes an alternative trajectory for the development of modernism that allows for a richer understanding of nineteenth century visual culture.

Painting the Bible Michaela Giebelhausen, 2017-07-05 Painting the Bible is the first book to investigate the transformations that religious painting underwent in mid Victorian England. It charts the emergence of a Protestant realist painting in a period of increasing doubt, scientific discovery and biblical criticism. The book analyzes the position of religious painting in academic discourse and assesses the important role Pre Raphaelite work played in redefining painting for mid Victorian audiences. This original study brings together a wide range of material from high art and popular culture It locates the controversy over the religious works of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood in debates about academicism revivalism and caricature It also investigates William Holman Hunt's radical orientalist realist approach to biblical subject matter which offered an important updating of the image of Christ that chimed with the principles of liberal Protestantism The book will appeal to scholars and students across disciplines such as art history literature history and cultural studies Its original research rigorous analysis and accessible style will make it essential reading for anyone interested in questions of representation and belief in mid Victorian England
