Pacific Cooperation and Development George Kozmetsky, Hiroshi Matsumoto, Raymond W. Smilor, 1988-11-21 This volume brings together business government and academic representatives from the United States Pacific and Asian nations to address issues of regional economic cooperation in the Pacific Basin. The contributors focus particularly on cooperation in five areas: development, commodities, technology, human resources and issues and directions. Their papers explore both the broad questions of cooperation in regional economic development and more practical concerns such as appropriate technology, political constraints and foreign aid. Invaluable supplemental reading for courses in economic development and comparative economics. Pacific Cooperation and Development provides important new insights into the dynamics of economic development in an increasingly critical global market.

Pacific Cooperation John Ravenhill, Vinod Aggarwal, Paul M. Evans, Pauline Kerr, 2019-06-20 Long divided by cultural, economic and political differences, the Asia Pacific region has little history of multilateral cooperation. Alliances that once linked individual countries with one or the other superpower fostered deep mistrust among neighbouring states. The end of the Cold War, however, has created new opportunities for multilateral co-operation.

Whether it does will largely depend upon the willingness of the region's nations to pursue economic co-operation and peaceful reconciliation of differences. In this volume, scholars, policy experts and representatives explore Japan and Asia-Pacific Integration Pekka Korhonen, 2008-01-28 Japan and Asia Pacific Integration is a study of regional integration in the greater Pacific area during 1968-1996. It examines the political rationale of such international organisations as the Asia Pacific Economic Co-operation APEC forum and the East Asian Economic Caucus EAEC. There is a focus on Japanese conceptions of regionalism and integration, but the attitudes of other countries such as the United States, Australia, Malaysia and China are also explored.

The 18th Meeting of the APEC Working Group on Human Resources Development, 1998 Indonesia and the Indo-Pacific Senia Febrica, 2023-07-19 This book examines Indonesia's strategies and policies to influence regional cooperation in the Indo Pacific, focusing especially on Indonesia's efforts to be the maritime fulcrum in the Indo Pacific during President Joko Widodo's Jokowi administration from 2014 until the present. Highlighting the importance of Indonesia as the largest country in Southeast Asia and as a founder member of ASEAN, the book based on extensive original research provides key insights into Indonesia's maritime policy decision making since 2014. It discusses the domestic political context in which foreign policy decisions are made, provides an explanation for Indonesia's efforts to project its vision of Indo Pacific cooperation at the ASEAN level and beyond, and demonstrates how Indonesia strives to maintain a delicate balance in its interactions with major powers in the region.
