Painful Questions Gary L. Watts,1999 We want a world without pain fear or heartache When trouble comes our way we cry Why me Why do we suffer Why does God let bad things happen to good people To find answers we must look beneath the surface of life using the eyes of faith Is anyone listening We shake our fists at heaven We plead our case before God and others We are sure we deserve better In this certainty lie seeds of hope Will someone help ease the pain For this to happen we must dare to build something good out of life s broken pieces This is the work of love As we join our answers together like pieces of a puzzle the picture begins to look like a cross reminding us of God s presence Bridges: Ministering to Those Who Question David B. Ostler,2022-04-05 Second Edition with a new chapter on ministering to and within mixed faith marriages and families With the advancement of the internet changing worldviews and the rising generation of millennials Latter day Saints today face unique challenges to faith on an unprecedented scale Unlike most books written to help those struggling with their testimonies Bridges Ministering to Those Who Question is geared at helping local leaders and family members better understand the sources of these challenges and how to minister to those affected by them This ministering is done through building bridges of love empathy and trust regardless of whether or not someone retains their belief or continues to participate Author David B Ostler a former mission president utilizes surveys with local leaders and disaffected members research from social science and religious studies and teachings from Church leaders to show how Latter day Saints can work to better support those who have questions and create church environments where all can feel welcome
