Meroe Expedition:

The Meroe Expedition Krzysztof Adam Grzymski, Ali Osman Mohamed Salih, Society for the Study of Egyptian Antiquities, 2003 The earliest investigations at the ancient city of Meroe were carried out by John Garstang and the University of Liverpool from 1909 onwards This report on more recent work by a joint Sudanese Canadian project in 2000 and 2001 reflects greatly on the work of previous investigations at the site especially those of Garstang in providing assessments of their work as well as new observations The season described here consisted of museum research in Khartoum and Toronto as well as fieldwork and investigations at Amun Temple M260 the largest temple in the Kushite kingdom and the largest at Meroe Mound M712 as well as observations in and around the Royal City A report on pottery and small finds is given as well as a catalogue of objects from Garstang's excavations held in museum collections The Island of Meroë John Winter Crowfoot, 1911 Ancient Nubia Marjorie M. Fisher, Peter Lacovara, Salima Ikram, Sue D'Auria, 2012-09-06 A lushly illustrated gazetteer of the archaeological sites of southern Egypt and northern Sudan and named a 2012 American Publishers PROSE Awards winner for Best Archaeology Anthropology Book For most of the modern world ancient Nubia seems an unknown and enigmatic land Only a handful of archaeologists have studied its history or unearthed the Nubian cities temples and cemeteries that once dotted the landscape of southern Egypt and northern Sudan Nubia's remote setting in the midst of an inhospitable desert with access by river blocked by impassable rapids has lent it not only an air of mystery but also isolated it from exploration Over the past century particularly during this last generation scholars have begun to focus more attention on the fascinating cultures of ancient Nubia ironically prompted by the construction of large dams that have flooded vast tracts of the ancient land This book attempts to document some of what has recently been discovered about ancient Nubia with its remarkable history architecture and culture and thereby to give us a picture of this rich but unfamiliar African legacy Hellenizing Art in Ancient Nubia 300 B.C. - AD 250 and its Egyptian Models László Török, 2011-07-12 Presenting a large body of evidence for the first time this book offers a comprehensive treatment of Nubian architecture sculpture and minor arts in the period between 300 BC AD 250 It focuses primarily on the Nubian response to the traditional pharaonic Hellenistic Roman Hellenizing and hybrid elements of Ptolemaic and Roman Egyptian culture The author begins with a history of Nubian art and a critical survey of the literature on Ptolemaic and Roman Egyptian art Special chapters are then devoted to the discussion of the Egyptian Greek interaction in the arts of Ptolemaic Egypt the place of Egyptian Hellenistic and Hellenizing art within the oikumene the pluralistic visual world of Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt as well as on the specific genre of terracotta sculpture Utilizing examples from Meroe City and Musawwarat es Sufra the author argues that cultural transfer from Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt to Nubia resulted in an inward focused adaptation Therefore the resulting Nubian art from this period expresses only those aspects of Egyptian and Greek art that are compatible with indigenous Nubian goals The Cambridge History of Egypt Carl F. Petry, 2008-07-10 Egypt The 1905-1907 Breasted Expeditions to Egypt and the Sudan James Henry Breasted, 1975 Historical Dictionary of Ancient Nubia Richard A. Lobban Jr., 2021-04-10 This new book descends from a former combined reference book on Ancient and Medieval Nubia but now expands and focuses primarily on Prehistoric and Ancient times It contextualizes the foundational roots of human evolution in the Paleolithic and Mesolithic stone ages and on to the Neolithic revolution built on farming and livestock Meanwhile Kerma was the most ancient African states and their relationship with dynastic Egypt Precisely ancient Kerma was a serious political economic and military rival to Old and Middle Kingdoms of Egypt But in the New Kingdom the balance of regional forces was dramatically changed with Egyptians defeating Kerma and occupying and colonizing Kush Nubia for 500 years In the 11th century BCE the political unity of Egypt withered away and after recovering from foreign exploitation Nubians began to reconstitute a small state at Kurru with renewed pyramid building and then finding no Egyptian resistance these Nubians kings advanced on Egyptian Nubia and then on to Upper Egypt Finally Nubians were able to take over all of Egypt as the pharaohs of century long Dynasty XXV This so called Ethiopian dynasty had the famed pharaohs of Piankhy Shabaka Shabataka Taharka and Tanutamun ruling for various terms three of who are mentioned in the Biblical Old Testament Even when Nubians were expelled from Egypt by foreign Assyrian invaders they retreated to Napata to carry on their ancient state for three more independent centuries as Egyptian remained conquered by various foreigners for 2 500 years Most notable of these foreign conquerors of Egypt were the Greeks Ptolemies and the Roman who arrived and polytheists and left as Christians During this Greco Roman period in Egypt Nubians strategically withdrew still further south to the Kingdom of Mero from the 4th century BCE to the 4th century CE Meroe is also covered in great detail as it was famed for many regnant queens a unique and undeciphered writing system iron production and important monumental works including more pyramids than found in Egypt Yes smaller and later but many more pyramids that are still standing in several World Heritage sites in Nubia After Mero began a long decline it was finally vulnerable to attack from Christian Axum on the 4th century CE Two murky centuries of regional rule known as the X Group were to follow but by the 6th century Nubians recreated three Christian states that are covered in detail in the following Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia and the Historical Dictionary of Sudan for Islamic and modern times Expedition , 1992 Meroë, the City of the Ethiopians John Garstang, 1911 Howard University Studies in History , 1921 Historical Dictionary of Ancient and Medieval Nubia Richard A. Lobban, 2003-12-09 The Historical Dictionary of Ancient and Medieval Nubia covers the period from the Paleolithic all the periods of ancient Nubia Predynastic Kerma Dynasty XXV Napatan Meroitic Post Meroitic and to the end of medieval Christianity in Nubia Sudan This resource focuses on Nubian history through a Nubian perspective rather than on the more common Egypto centrism perspective and the coverage is based on the latest and best archaeological and epigraphic evidence Newly created maps of the general area and its specific regions and place names and a photospread showing important related features of the region are included A detailed chronology provides a timeline of historical events and an introductory narrative shapes the overall history and leads to the main body of the work in the form of a cross referenced dictionary The descriptive entries cover the main features of the region in the various periods that are key not only to Nubian events but also to the important interactions they had with Egypt to the north Nine appendices and an extensive bibliography conclude this work Lobban has been teaching Nubian studies in undergraduate classrooms for thirty years and this book is a product of his hands on experiences as well as extensive anthropological fieldwork and travel in Sudanese and Egyptian Nubia Our Sudan John Ward,1905 Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia Richard A. Lobban Jr.,2020-10-20 Medieval Christian Nubia is often a neglected period of medieval African history Because meaning is determined largely by context this work traces the Greco Roman Meroitic and Jewish precursors The regional historical and theological schisms within Christianity are also a highlight The dynamics of the three Nubian kingdoms of Nobatia Mukurra and Alwa are the centerpiece of this book that covers mural arts architecture and the names of the leading kings and bishops Another strength of the book is the analysis of the 700 year baqt peace treaty between Christian Nubia and Islamic Egypt this is considered to be the longest lasting treaty in diplomatic history The complex transition from Christianity to Islam in the 14th century is analyzed in great personal political and military detail Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on politics economy foreign relations religion and culture of the medieval Nubians This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Medieval Christian Nubia Aufstieg und Niedergang der römischen Welt: Principat. v Hildegard Temporini,Wolfgang Haase,1995 Boston Museum Bulletin ,1918 The Egyptian Department and Its Excavations Dows Dunham,1958 The Illustrated London News ,1923 Bulletin Museum of Fine Arts, Boston,1922 Museum of Fine Arts Bulletin Museum of Fine Arts, Boston,1922 Communications to the Trustees Museum of Fine Arts, Boston,1924
