Failure Is Not Final Eric Mansfield MD MPH, 2022-02-25 Have you ever done something that was so horrible that you truly have no excuses A simple bless your heart won't cut it and the all encompassing Christian Hail Mary phrase that covers a multitude of sins The Lord knows my heart just won't do Not for this time You can wax poetic You dropped the ball at the five yard line you didn't live up to your expectations and you fell flat Best of all you're only human But when you look at the aftermath of your decisions it looks like a battlefield of the emotionally and sometimes physically wounded There are no excuses We knew better We saw the trouble coming and we just couldn't step away We got caught up in our selfishness caught up in fleeting excitement and caught up in minutes of recklessness that have left a lifetime of I wish I hadn'ts When you peel off the weak excuses the tissue paper pride the guilt anger and shame I messed up without just flat out cussing sums it up Now what will you do

A Strong Foundation for Christian Living Dr. Joe Cephus Bingham Sr., 2016-06-07 Jesus tells a story about two homes in Matthew 7:24-27 The narrative helps everybody to understand the difference between Holiness and sinfulness In these Scriptures THE LORD shares a word picture to show the dissimilarity amid unrighteous and righteous The unjust ill advised built upon shifting sand with no thought of digging a foundation He did not consider his future An unshakable truth is seasons changes therefore when the gale winds blew his home failed On the other hand the man of wisdom dug deep until he hit solid stone hence his base and construction stood under all kinds of inclement weather Believers who study pray and go to worship services are building their life on the unyielding pillars of The Gospel However sitting in the wrong Church and receiving inaccurate teaching is just as indiscreet as faulty architect on sinking landscape The strong winds of adversity are sure to come and the structure will collapse Matthew 7:27 Two builders the foolish and wise two results devastation and strength Make the Gospel a lifestyle
