Metaphoric Process Connections Between Language And Life:

The Metaphoric Process Gemma Corradi Fiumara, 1995 Metaphor is much more than just a linguistic phenomena argues Gemma Corradi Fiumara it is in fact the key process by which we construct and develop our ability to understand the world and the people we share it with Rationality as understood by philosophers has led to a disembodied view of ourselves in which interaction between life and language has been downplayed By looking at the metaphoric process in an interpersonal rather than a formal way its importance in allowing us access to new worlds of experience is revealed The metaphoric potential in us all exposes us to the world and initiates our involvement in it The Routledge Handbook of Metaphor and Language Elena Semino, Zsófia Demjén, 2016-11-03 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Metaphor provides a comprehensive overview of state of the art interdisciplinary research on metaphor and language and maps out future directions of research and practice in a variety of contexts in this field Ten Lectures on Spoken Language and Gesture from the Perspective of Cognitive Linguistics Alan Cienki, 2017-04-11 Cognitive linguistics is purported to be a usage based approach yet only recently has research in some of its subfields turned to spontaneous spoken versus written language data The collection of Alan Cienki's Ten Lectures on Spoken Language and Gesture from the Perspective of Cognitive Linguistics considers what it means to apply different approaches from within this field to the dynamic multimodal combination of speech and gesture The lectures encompass such main paradigms as blending and mental space theory conceptual metaphor and metonymy construction and cognitive grammars image schemas and mental simulation in relation to semantics Overall Alan Cienki shows that taking the usage based commitment seriously with audio visual data raises new issues and questions for theoretical models in cognitive linguistics The lectures for this book were given at The China International Forum on Cognitive Linguistics in May 2013 Language, Symbolization, and Psychosis Giovanna Ambrosio, Simona Argentieri, Jorge Canestri, 2018-04-24 In this book the authors compare different psychoanalytic thinking and models all of a rigorously Freudian stamp on three concepts of great theoretical and clinical importance language symbolization and psychosis Metaphor and Gesture Alan J. Cienki, Cornelia Müller, 2008 This volume is the first to offer an overview on metaphor and gesture a new multi disciplinary area of research Scholars of metaphor have been paying increasing attention to spontaneous gestures with speech meanwhile researchers in gesture studies have been focussing on the abstract ideas which receive physical representation through metaphors when speakers gesture This book presents a snapshot of the state of the art in these converging fields offering research papers as well as commentaries from multiple perspectives In addition to conceptual metaphor theory it includes different theoretical approaches to semiotics and the methods used range from controlled experimentation to cognitive ethnography to lexical semantic analysis The use of metaphor in gesture is shown to reflect idiosyncracies of thought in the moment of speaking as well as structural cultural and interactional patterns The series of commentaries discusses the potential importance of studying metaphor and gesture from the perspectives of such fields as anthropology cognitive linguistics conversation analysis psychology and semiotics

The Language of Business Studies Lectures Belinda Crawford Camiciottoli, 2007-01-01 New opportunities in the global workplace have heightened interest in business studies In response to this trend this book presents an in depth analysis of a corpus of authentic business studies lectures focusing on spoken academic disciplinary and professional features e g speech rate interactive devices specialized lexis that are crucial to comprehension but often problematic for non native speakers The investigation adopts an original multi pronged approach including quantitative qualitative and comparative analyses It utilizes techniques drawn mainly from corpus linguistics and discourse analysis but also integrates observational and ethnographic methods to provide unique extra linguistic insights The study is thus a full circle interpretive account of this dynamic spoken genre where academia and profession converge The book shows how business studies lectures are characterised by a synergy of discourses and communicative channels that reflect the community of practice highlighting the need to help international business students develop multiple literacies to overcome present and future challenges

Metaphor and God-talk Lieven Boeve, Kurt Feyaerts, 1999 Metaphor, Culture, and Worldview Dilin Liu, 2002-10-16 Using dominant metaphors in American English and the Chinese language Metaphor Culture and Worldview explores how metaphor is a product that is simultaneously shaped by and is shaping the culture and the worldview of the people who use it and how it showcases some unique features of communication of the speakers of the two languages Using examples mostly from media and other public speeches and writings author Dilin Liu argues that sports and business constitute the dominant metaphors in American English while family and eating form the prevailing metaphors in Chinese To assist the reader in understanding the metaphors discussed the book contains a glossary of dominant American and Chinese metaphorical idioms

At the Threshold of Mystery Ewa Borkowska, 2005 The book At the Threshold of Mystery Poetic Encounters with Other ness addresses the problem of literary dialogue as it appears in the philosophical poetic and aesthetic discourses in the last two centuries Central to the dialogue with Other ness is a background discussion of the idea of friendship as an encounter with another individual with another man with God or gods and also with another culture the issues present in Emmanuel Levinas s ethical philosophy Merleau Ponty s concept of intersubjectivity becomes a crucial point in the creative construction of the philosophy of dialogue whose ideological antecedents date back to the times of Plato At the border of language or at the threshold of mystery there crowds what is metaphysically arcane or immediate that which signals the other the out there The central idea which this book examines is how to reconcile the hermetically sealed historical past with modern times in order to inaugurate the genuine philosophy of dialogue It is the author's strong belief that by interrupting totality the poetic work which often turns into the prophetic signature or voice the trace of otherness seems to give testimony to the primordial experience so essential for the birth of poetry The poetic examples of the mysterious encounters with Otherness are selected each in its most idiosyncratic way from Gerard Manley Hopkins Rainer Maria Rilke Paul Celan Seamus Heaney and two Polish poets Zbigniew Herbert and Adam Zagajewski but also from Walter Pater's aesthetic epiphanies Nietzsche and the Sciences Babette E. Babich, 1999 Leadership for Safe Schools Raymond L.

Calabrese, 2000-12-20 School administrators need to establish safe academic environments Emphasizing effective strategies and practices that emerge from collaborative community building efforts Calabrese shows how administrators teachers parents and students can work together to ensure physical and emotional safety The system of communication introduced by Leadership for Safe Schools which focuses on constructive activities and establishing a common cause among diverse groups of individuals can be designed to fill the unique needs of every school Metaphor, Canon, and Community Ralph Bisschops, James Francis, 1999 Every religion interprets its metaphors according to a specific model Such differences tend to be largely determined by dogmatic principles underlying a specific religion This volume contains a selection of the papers originally delivered at the 25th LAUD symposium on Metaphor and Religion It presents the unusual attempt of gathering viewpoints from the three great religions within monotheism Judaism Christianity and Islam and it includes contributions from renowned authors such as Rabbi Lawrence A Hoffman Anna Wierzbicka and Mehmet Aydin The volume covers a wide range of theological subjects from mysticism to pastoral care It also contains case studies illustrating the methodology used by today's scholars of metaphor in the field The volume poses important challenges to mainstream metaphorology It presents a significant range of discoveries instances and new interpretative models The book however not only addresses theorists of metaphor but all students scholars and religious leaders engaged in cross religious studies or ecumenical dialogue Interrogating Racism in Qualitative Research Methodology Gerardo R. López, Laurence Parker, 2003 The areas of race class and gender have generated increasing attention within the academy providing a strong critique of the supposed neutrality of the research process Interrogating Racism in Qualitative Research Methodology presents qualitative studies and essay reviews that connect these emerging theories to research and practice in the public schools as well as in institutions of higher education Each chapter explores an emerging area of legal scholarship known as critical race theory and adopts a penetrating perspective that recognizes the normality and invisibility of racism in all aspects of society This book explores the links between critical race theory and qualitative research methodology and it interrogates how race connects and conflicts with other areas of difference and is never entirely absent from the research process      Text & Presentation,
