Advertising Exposure, Memory and Choice Andrew A. Mitchell, 2013-06-17 Theoretical research on advertising effects at the individual level has focused almost entirely on the effects of advertising exposure on attitudes and the mediators of attitude formation and change This focus implicitly assumes attitudes are a good predictor of behavior which they generally are not and downplays the role of memory in that there is generally a considerable amount of time between advertising exposure and purchase decisions in most marketing situations Recently a number of researchers have developed conceptual models which provide an explicit link between two separate events advertising exposure and purchase behavior with memory providing the link between these events Originally presented at the eighth annual Advertising and Consumer Psychology Conference held in Toronto some chapters in this volume present recent research on the role of inferences in advertising situations the effects of exposure to multiple advertisements message receptivity drama advertisements and the use of EEG in measuring advertising effectiveness Contributions focus on research examining the effects of advertising exposure on consumer information processing and decision making This book will be of interest to consumer psychologists and professionals in advertising and marketing The Missionary Review of the World ,1930

On the Ethical Philosophy of Edith Stein William E. Tullius,2024-09-03 Although she never penned a text dedicated exclusively to ethics Edith Stein s work encompasses an implicit but self consciously developed moral philosophy not yet sufficiently developed in the current English language literature However comparison of Stein s anthropological and metaphysical theories against the ethical philosophy of other early phenomenological thinkers such as Max Scheler and Edmund Husserl reveals lines of moral theory woven throughout her texts In On the Ethical Philosophy of Edith Stein Outlines of Morality William E Tullius endeavors to present a systematic account of Stein s moral thought as it takes shape in conversation with neo scholasticism and develops across her corpus in conversation with her philosophical anthropology axiological theory and metaphysics The ethics which emerge from these sources is oriented around the moral project of the development of personality through the unfolding of one s personal core and which entails a call to the development of an ethical community reflective of and oriented by its responsiveness to the highest values and to the communal destiny of all humanity in God The American Magazine ,1914 The Equipment of the School Theater Milton Myers Smith,1930
