Lieberman,2007-03-01 Have you ever wished you could peer into someone s mind to find out what he or she is really thinking Now you can really This book is not a collection of recycled ideas about body language It does not suggest that a woman s hairstyle will give us unprecedented access into her soul neither does it draw wildly ambiguous generalities about people based on our intuition or gut instinct nor does it reach conclusions based on how she folds her hands or he ties his shoelaces This book contains specific proven psychological techniques that can be applied instantly to any person in just about any situation Dr Lieberman has demonstrated the ease and accuracy of these techniques on hundreds of television and radio programs In a special report for FOX News host Jeff Rosin declared It s simply amazing I was with him and he was never wrong not even once I even learned how to do it and that s saying something In fact Dr Lieberman has gone head to head on live television with skilled polygraph examiners and scored just as well every time You Can Read Anyone shows step by step exactly how to tell what someone is thinking and feeling in real life situations For example you will see precisely how to determine whether another poker player will stay in or fold whether a salesperson is trustworthy or whether or not a first date is going your way or the other way And when the stakes are high negotiations interrogations questions of abuse theft or fraud knowing who is out for you and who is out to get you or a loved one can save you time money energy and heartache It'll Never Happen Again Raoul Moret Pierre,2011-08-31 Before the great depression started in 1929 times were hard for colored people in the south especially in large cities but not as much in rural areas Most of the rural areas were littered with sharecroppers who were mostly holdovers from the slavery era and stayed on the land they were born Most of them had never been any further than the nearest town close to where they lived Three such families lived on land their families had farmed for years The landowners were the Holcomb and Nobles and the three families that lived and farmed the land were the Carters the Longs and the Isaacs The Carter family was Granny Nettie Adams her son in law Abraham his wife Eve and three kids the Long family John Henry his wife Florence called Flossie and their three kids and the Isaac family of four William his wife Cara and two kids They all lived and worked as sharecroppers on the Holcomb and Nobles land just north of Denmark South Carolina On December fifteenth 1921 John Henry Long s wife Flossie gave birth to their third child a girl named June but Flossie died shortly after giving birth due to complications John

Henry did the best he could to care for his three children and hired a neighbor's daughter to care for his kids while he worked his land. She worked for him for over a year until she wanted to get married and leave Denmark. Initially, he would take the kids to the field with him and his oldest son Bankston, who he called Banks, who was only seven, would watch the kids who were Mae, Helen, five, and the baby who was barely walking, June, and he called her Lil Sis. One day, Granny Nettie came to the fields to bring her son-in-law Abe his lunch and saw John Henry's kids and offered to care for them along with her own three great-grandkids. Her granddaughter Eve worked at the Holcomb's house as the cook after her mother died in the winter of 1918. She was an only child since her mother died at age twenty-three and her father left going to Charleston and never came back. Everyday before he went to the fields, John Henry would bring kids to the Carter house. This arrangement worked very well until the summer of 1923 when Abe was killed in a farming accident. His mule kicked him in the head and he was dragged with the plow. The news of his death devastated Eve and left her wondering how she, the kids, and Granny Nettie were going to make it and be able to farm the land Eve had loved Abe since she first saw him in town at the general store when she was ten and married him when she turned sixteen. Abe's family lived on the other side of Denmark but shopped at the general store like most people in the area. After Abe's death, John Henry began to stay at the Carter's when he came by to pick up his kids, have dinner, and would flirt with Eve. At first, she didn't acknowledge his flirting but after a long talk with Granny Nettie about John Henry's flirting and her need for a husband to provide for her and her three kids, she gave in and married him in late 1924. It wasn't about love because she said she could never love another man after Abe; it was just about the kids and both of their needs to support their kids. Eve decided to move to John Henry's house and Granny Nettie came with them to watch the kids during the day while he worked the fields and Eve continued to work at the Holcomb's house. At first, the arrangement worked great until the spring of 1925 when John Henry made the boys go to the fields with him to work. Most days, the kids went to the Denmark School for Colored Children. Eve's sons Joshua called Josh and Daniel called Danny, and John Henry's son Bankston called Banks would go to the fields some days but John Henry began to make them stay out of school and began to treat Eve's sons differently. He would beat them with his strap sometimes two or three times a week if they didn't do what he told him to do in the
